

Assembly Bill No. 1083

CHAPTER 311

An act to amend Sections 6450 and 6451 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to paralegals.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 2001. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 2001.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1083, Bates. Paralegals.

Existing law defines the term "paralegal," establishes qualifications for a paralegal, and sets forth activities that paralegals are prohibited from performing.

This bill would require that a person hold himself or herself out to be a paralegal in order to be considered a paralegal and that, among other things, the person be qualified by education, training, or work experience to be a paralegal.

Existing law prohibits, with specified exceptions, a paralegal from performing services for a consumer unless those services are performed under the direction and supervision of an attorney, law firm, corporation, government agency, or other entity that employs or contracts with paralegals.

This bill would make a clarifying change in those provisions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6450 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by the 1st text of Section 1 of Chapter 439 of the Statutes of 2000, is amended to read:

6450. (a) "Paralegal" means a person who holds himself or herself out to be a paralegal, who is qualified by education, training, or work experience, and who either contracts with or is employed by an attorney, law firm, corporation, governmental agency, or other entity, and who performs substantial legal work under the direction and supervision of an active member of the State Bar of California, as defined in Section 6060, or an attorney practicing law in the federal courts of this state, that has been specifically delegated by the attorney to him or her. Tasks performed by a paralegal may include, but are not limited to, case planning, development, and management; legal research; interviewing clients; fact gathering and retrieving information; drafting and analyzing legal documents; collecting, compiling, and utilizing technical information to make an independent decision and recommendation to the supervising attorney; and representing clients before a state or federal administrative agency if that representation is permitted by statute, court rule, or administrative rule or regulation.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a paralegal shall not do any of the following:

- (1) Provide legal advice.
- (2) Represent a client in court.
- (3) Select, explain, draft, or recommend the use of any legal document to or for any person other than the attorney who directs and supervises the paralegal.

- (8) Establish the fees to charge a client for the services the paralegal performs, which shall be established by the attorney who supervises the paralegal's work. This paragraph does not apply to fees charged by a paralegal in a contract to provide paralegal services to an attorney, law firm, corporation, governmental agency, or other entity as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) A paralegal shall possess at least one of the following:

- (1) A certificate of completion of a paralegal program approved by the American Bar Association.

- (4) A high school diploma or general equivalency diploma, a minimum of three years of law-related experience under the supervision of an attorney who has been an active member of the State Bar of California for at least the preceding three years or who has practiced in the federal courts of this state for at least the preceding three years, and a written declaration from this attorney stating that the person is qualified to perform paralegal tasks. This experience and training shall be completed no later than December 31, 2003.

(d) All paralegals shall be required to certify completion every three years of four hours of mandatory continuing legal education in legal ethics. All continuing legal education courses shall meet the requirements of Section 6070. Every two years, all paralegals shall be required to certify completion of four hours of mandatory continuing education in either general law or in a specialized area of law. The paralegal shall be responsible for keeping a record of the paralegal's certifications.

(e) A paralegal does not include a nonlawyer who provides legal services directly to members of the public or a legal document assistant or unlawful detainer assistant as defined in Section 6400.

(f) If a legal document assistant, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 6400, has registered, on or before January 1, 2001, as required by law, a business name that includes the word "paralegal," that person may continue to use that business name until he or she is required to renew registration.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2004, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2004, deletes or extends that date.
