

AMENDED IN SENATE AUGUST 17, 2004

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 28, 2004

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2003–04 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2288

Introduced by Assembly Member Pacheco

February 19, 2004

An act to amend Section 422.7 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2288, as amended, Pacheco. Hate crimes.

Under existing law certain hate crimes are punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine not to exceed $10,000, or by both, if the crime is committed (1) against the person or property of another to intimidate or interfere with that other person's free exercise or enjoyment of any legal or constitutional right, and (2) because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because the defendant perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics, and (3) under specified circumstances, including, among other things, that the crime against property causes damage in excess of $500.

This bill would lower the property damage amount to $400. Because this bill would expand the scope of an existing crime, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

This bill would incorporate additional changes to Section 422.7 of the Penal Code proposed by SB 1234, contingent upon the prior enactment of that bill.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:
