

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 627

Introduced by Assembly Member Leslie

February 17, 2005

An act to amend Section 5009 of the Penal Code, relating to parolees.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 627, as introduced, Leslie. Parole: religious advisers.

Existing law generally authorizes members of the clergy or spiritual advisers to visit inmates while in prison. Existing regulation prohibits employees of the Department of Corrections from contacting, corresponding, or otherwise communicating with an inmate or parolee, except in the execution of their assigned duties.

This bill would authorize a member of the clergy or spiritual adviser who has ministered to or advised an inmate while incarcerated to continue to minister to or advise the inmate while he or she is on parole, as long as the clergy member or spiritual adviser consents, in writing, to do so.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.
