AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 3, 2008

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2007–08 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2152

Introduced by Assembly Member Duvall

February 20, 2008

An act to amend Section 6701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2152, as amended, Duvall. State Board of Equalization: security.

The Sales and Use Tax Law authorizes the State Board of Equalization to require taxpayers to post security up to a maximum of $50,000 whenever the board deems it necessary to ensure the payment of taxes due. Existing law also requires the board to released the security after a 3-year period in which the taxpayer has filed all returns and paid all tax to the state.

This bill would require the State Board of Equalization to, in the event the security deposit is not refunded to the taxpayer after a 3-year period in which the taxpayer has filed all returns and paid all tax to the state, pay interest to the taxpayer on the amount of the security deposit at a specified rate. ~~This bill would also allow a taxpayer to bring a legal action against the board if the board fails to refund the security deposit within 3 months of the security deposit's release date, as provided. This bill would provide that this requirement does not apply if the taxpayer is found by the board not to be in good standing.~~

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 6701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code
2 is amended to read:
3 6701. (a) The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure
4 compliance with this part, may require any person subject thereto,
5 to place with it any security that the board may determine. Any
6 security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits
7 in banks or savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board
8 in trust to be used solely in the manner provided by this section
9 and Section 6815. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the 10 board but, except as noted below, shall not be greater than twice
11 the estimated average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly
12 periods or three times the estimated average liability of persons
13 required to file returns for monthly periods, determined in the

28 period in which the person has filed all returns and paid all tax to 29 the state or any amount of tax required to be collected and paid to 30 the state within the time required. The board may sell the security
31 at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to
32 recover any tax or any amount required to be collected, interest,
33 or penalty due. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person
34 who placed the security personally or by mail; if by mail, service
35 shall be made in the manner prescribed for service of a notice of 36 a deficiency determination and shall be addressed to the person at 37 his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Upon

1 any sale any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to
2 the person who placed the security.

3 (b) (1) If the board does not release the security to the taxpayer

11 ~~(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the board~~
12 ~~does not release the security to the taxpayer within three months~~
13 ~~of the date upon which the security was eligible for release, a~~
14 ~~taxpayer may bring a suit or proceeding in any court for the~~
15 ~~recovery of a security deposit alleged to have been erroneously~~
16 ~~withheld by the board. If the taxpayer is the prevailing party, they~~ 17 ~~shall be entitled to the recovery of their reasonable legal fees and~~
18 ~~court costs.~~

19 (2) This subdivision shall not apply in the case of a taxpayer
20 who is found by the board not to be in good standing.
