RESOLUTION CHAPTER _____

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 36—Relative to California Community College Music Day.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 36, Yee. California Community College Music Day.

This measure would designate May 11, 2007, and each May 11 thereafter, as California Community College Music Day to recognize the Music Association of California Community Colleges for its commitment to music education.

WHEREAS, On May 11, 2007, the Music Association of California Community Colleges (MACCC) will celebrate California Community College Music Day, and it is appropriate at this time to draw the attention of the public to this special event; and

WHEREAS, Established in the 1953–54 school year as the California Junior College Music Educators Association, the name was modified after the State of California changed the name of the established Junior College System to the California Community Colleges; and

WHEREAS, MACCC is committed to addressing the wide variety of issues unique to California community college music teachers, with its membership including some of the most active and successful community college music teachers in the state; and

WHEREAS, MACCC recognizes that the attainment of musical skill is a lifelong endeavor, that the maintenance of these skills requires continuous practice and participation in musical activities, and that the inclusion of experienced, skilled musicians enhances the quality of a performing ensemble; and

WHEREAS, The MACCC organization has expanded to feature contests for composition majors and to provide the setting for performances of its conference choir and bands with world-renowned conductors, and it remains committed to working on behalf of the dedicated faculty to meet the needs of the music students who live in their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, The teachers who comprise the membership of the Music Association of California Community Colleges provide nurturing, academically motivated programs that build confidence, raise student self-esteem, and provide each student with a belief system that supports the philosophy that all students can learn, achieve, and make good choices; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California applauds the Music Association of California Community Colleges for the concern and commitment it has displayed for the education of its students, that May 11, 2007, be recognized as California Community College Music Day, and that each May 11 thereafter be recognized as California Community College Music Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
