

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 60

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 16

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 60—Relative to the Leo J. Trombatore State Office Building.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 2008.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 60, Aanestad. Leo J. Trombatore State Office Building.

This measure would designate the Department of Transportation District 3 office building in Marysville as the Leo J. Trombatore State Office Building.

WHEREAS, Leo J. Trombatore was born in the Los Angeles area, studied engineering at UCLA and industrial relations at the UCLA Graduate School of Business, and completed the Professional Program in Urban Transportation at the Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mr. Trombatore is a registered professional engineer in California; and

WHEREAS, Leo J. Trombatore's impressive 41-year career with the Department of Transportation began in 1947. He served more than seven years as District Director at the department's Marysville office, which covers 11 counties, including Sacramento. He was Chief Deputy District Director for Planning and Design in the department's San Francisco District Office for eight years, and also worked 20 years in the Los Angeles District Office as Assistant District Director; and

WHEREAS, Leo J. Trombatore was one of the first major appointees of Governor Deukmejian, and served as the Director of Transportation from March 4, 1983, through January 1, 1988; and

WHEREAS, Leo J. Trombatore received numerous awards and honors for his service. He was honored in 1987 by the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials with the Thomas H. MacDonald Award for his lifetime of distinguished service. In recognition of his past service with the department and for his achievements as director, in 1984 he was named by the American Public Works Association as one of this country's top 10 public works officials. In 1983, he also received the Professional Engineers in Government Award from both the National and California Societies of Professional Engineers; and

WHEREAS, Leo J. Trombatore resides with his wife, Shirley, in Yuba City near Sacramento, and they have three children; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to commemorate Mr. Trombatore's years of public service to California and the Department of Transportation by naming a state transportation office building in his honor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation District 3 office building in Marysville shall be designated as the Leo J. Trombatore State Office Building; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be provided by the Secretary of the Senate to the Director of Transportation and to the author for appropriate distribution.
