[Approved by Governor October 13, 2007. Filed with Secretary of State October 13, 2007.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 880, Calderon. Crime.

Existing law provides that it is a crime to import for commercial purposes, possess with intent to sell, or sell any part or product of the dead body of a kangaroo punishable by a fine between $1,000 and $5,000, imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 6 months, or both fine and imprisonment, for each violation.

This bill would, until January 1, 2011, provide that these provisions shall not apply to kangaroos that may be harvested lawfully under Australian national and state law, the federal Endangered Species Act of 1971, and applicable international conventions, provided that the Department of Fish and Game is annually informed of statistical information regarding the commercial harvest of kangaroos, as specified.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

established for 2007 or the lawful take of kangaroos in each subsequent year, whichever is the lesser.

(2) If the department fails to receive the report described in paragraph (1), the department shall inform the Australian national government that future importation of kangaroos that otherwise may be harvested lawfully under Australian national and state law, the federal Endangered Species Act of 1971 (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq.), and applicable international conventions shall be halted and their importation into this state for commercial purposes, possession with intent to sell, or sale within the state will be subject to the provisions of this section.

(e) The prohibitions against importation for commercial purposes, possession with intent to sell, and sale of the species listed in this section are severable. A finding of the invalidity of any one or more prohibitions shall not affect the validity of any remaining prohibitions.
