ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 483

Introduced by Assembly Member Buchanan (Coauthors: Assembly Members De La Torre, De Leon, Jones, Lieu, and Portantino)

February 24, 2009

An act to add Section 11752.75 to the Insurance Code, relating to workers' compensation.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 483, as amended, Buchanan. Workers' compensation: Internet Web sites.

Existing law provides that a licensed rating organization shall make available specified policy information relating to workers' compensation insurance, as specified.

This bill would provide that a licensed rating organization shall, pursuant to regulations adopted by the Insurance Commissioner after notice and hearing, establish and maintain an Internet Web site, as specified, for the purposes of assisting any person to determine whether an employer is insured for workers' compensation.

This bill would specify who may submit an inquiry and for what purpose, what information shall be available on the Internet Web site, and would provide that a rating organization would not be required to disclose, on the Internet Web site, certain specified information or confidential information, as specified.

The bill would provide that the Internet Web site shall be accessible for inquiries without charge, but the commissioner may at his or her discretion, permit the rating organization to impose access restrictions as necessary to deter the use of the Internet Web site for purposes other than which it was intended.

This bill would provide that the Internet Web site contain specified information, or a hypertext link to insurer information on the Department of Industrial Relations' Internet Web site, and a hypertext link to the department for the purpose of locating employers who may be self-insured.

This bill would require that the Internet Web site be operational within one year after adoption of regulations by the commissioner, and be updated as specified.

This bill would require the commissioner to adopt regulations to implement this act and provide for dispute resolution regarding the accuracy of the information displayed on the Internet Web site.

This bill would provide civil immunity, as specified, to rating organizations, and specified persons acting within their capacity as members of the organization, or employees acting within the scope of their employment, who release information.

This bill would provide that it shall not be construed to create liability, as specified, or construed to limit the authority of a rating organization to disclose information contained in its records to others.

This bill would require the commissioner to conduct a review, evaluation, and assessment of the Internet Web site, as specified, to provide a written report no later than July 1, 2013, of his or her findings to various state legislative and executive entities, and to make the report available on its own Internet Web site.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 11752.75 is added to the Insurance Code,
- 2 to read:
- 3 11752.75. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law,
- 4 a licensed rating organization shall, pursuant to regulations adopted
- 5 by the commissioner after notice and hearing, establish and

1 maintain an Internet Web site for the purposes of assisting any
2 person to determine whether an employer is insured for workers'
3 compensation.

4 (2) An Internet Web site developed pursuant to this section shall
5 not include any links to a commercial, for-profit Internet Web site,
6 other than a link to the licensed rating organization's homepage,
7 and shall not contain any advertising other than the name, logo,
8 and contact information of the licensed rating organization.

9 (b) The Internet Web site shall:

10 (1) Permit a person to submit a query for coverage information
11 concerning a specified employer on a specified date. The specified
12 date shall be within five years of the date of query.

13 (2) Permit the query to specify an employer, using the name,
14 address, or other identifying information of the employer, or 15 combinations of identifying information, as may be provided by 16 regulations adopted by the commissioner. Other identifying
17 information may include, but need not be limited to, the employer's
18 federal employer identification number.

19 (3) In response to the query, provide the name of the workers'
20 compensation insurer or insurers for the employer on the date
21 specified in the query according to the most recent information
22 available to the rating organization, subject to paragraph (7), and
23 provide a contact address for the insurer from information available
24 to the rating organization, or by providing a hypertext link to 25 insurer information available on the department's Internet Web
26 site.

27 (4) Be accessible for inquiries without charge. However, the 28 commissioner may, at his or her discretion, permit the rating
29 organization to impose access restrictions as necessary to deter
30 the use of the Internet Web site for purposes other than those for 31 which it was intended.

32 (5) Contain a hypertext link to the Department of Industrial
33 Relations' Internet Web site for the purpose of locating employers
34 who may be self-insured.

35 (6) Include any disclaimers that the commissioner may prescribe.

36 (7) Be updated to reflect policy information as soon as is 37 reasonably feasible following submission of that information by 38 insurers to the rating organization, as the commissioner shall 39 require.

1 (8) Include a disclaimer stating that the search results may not
2 reflect recent changes in information.

3 (9) Include a disclaimer stating that the failure of an employer
4 to appear in response to a query does not mean that the employer
5 does not have insurance or is operating in violation of California
6 law.

7 (10) Include the date that the Internet Web site was last updated.

8 (c) A rating organization shall not be required to disclose on 9 the Internet Web site any policy numbers, inception or expiration 10 dates, or confidential information, as defined by the commissioner.

11 (d) The Internet Web site specified in this section shall become 12 operative no later than ~~1~~ one year after the effective date of 13 regulations adopted by the commissioner implementing this section.

14 (e) The commissioner shall adopt regulations to implement this 15 section no later than January 1, 2011. These regulations shall 16 specify a method by which an employer may dispute through the 17 rating organization or the employer's insurance company the 18 accuracy of the information displayed on the Internet Web site.

19 (f) No rating organization, member of a rating organization, or 20 member of a committee of a rating organization when acting within 21 his or her capacity as a member of the committee, or officer or
22 employee of a rating organization when acting within the scope
23 of his or her employment, shall be liable to any person for injury,
24 personal or otherwise, or damages caused, or alleged to have been
25 caused, either directly or indirectly, by the good faith disclosure
26 of information pursuant to this section, or for the accuracy or 27 completeness of any information disclosed in good faith.

28 (g) This section shall not be construed to create liability except 29 as provided in this section, nor as a legislative recognition that,
30 except for the enactment of this section, a liability would exist.

31 (h) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the 32 authority of a rating organization to disclose information contained
33 in its records to others.

34 (i) The commissioner shall conduct a review and evaluation of 35 the establishment and operation of the Internet Web site and an 36 assessment of whether it is achieving its intended purpose and 37 provide a written report on his or her findings no later than July
38 1, 2013. The report shall include, to the extent possible, statistics
39 on usage, error rates, user complaints, and efforts undertaken by 40 the commissioner to improve the operation of the Internet Web

1 site. The commissioner shall present a copy of the report to the 2 office of the President pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of 3 the Assembly, the Senate Committee on Banking, Finance and
4 Insurance, the Assembly Committee on Insurance, the Department
5 of Finance, and the Department of Industrial Relations and shall 6 make it available on the Internet Web site of the Department of 7 Insurance.
