AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 16, 2009

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2009—10 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1263

Introduced by Assembly Member Audra Strickland

February 27, 2009

An act to repeal and add Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to unlawful detainer.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1263, as amended, Audra Strickland. Unlawful detainer: service of notice.

Existing law governs unlawful detainer proceedings to effect the removal of a tenant from the property. Existing law specifies the manner of serving notice upon a tenant under those circumstances. Existing law requires service of the notice by delivering a copy to the tenant personally. If the tenant is absent from his or her place of residence, and from his or her usual place of business, existing law provides that notice may be served by leaving a copy with some person of suitable age and discretion at either place, and sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at his or her place of residence. If the residence and business cannot be ascertained, or a person of suitable age and discretion there cannot be found, existing law authorizes the notice to be served by affixing a copy in a conspicuous place on the property and delivering a copy to the person there residing, if that person can be found, and by sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at the place where the property is situated.

This bill would revise the provision governing the methods of serving notice upon a tenant for purposes of the unlawful detainer provisions by deleting the requirement that service be made at the tenant’s place of residence or usual place of business. The bill would instead require that service be made by (1) delivering a copy of the notice to the tenant personally, (2) leaving a copy of the notice at the property with a person of suitable age and discretion and mailing a copy of the notice to the tenant at the address of the property, or (3) affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the property and mailing a copy of the notice to the tenant at the address of the property. The bill would define the term “property,” for purposes of these provisions, to refer to the property that is the subject of the lease.
