CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2009—10 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1319

Introduced by Assembly Member Krekorian (Coauthors: Assembly Members Davis and Ma)

February 27, 2009

An act to repeal and add Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1701) of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, relating to talent services.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1319, as amended, Krekorian. Talent services.

Existing law regulates the licensing and operation of talent services within the entertainment industry. These provisions govern the making and canceling of contracts, fees to be charged for services, records to be maintained by talent services, bonding requirements, and remedies for violations of these provisions, a violation of which constitutes a crime.

This bill would prohibit a person from engaging, as specified, in an advance-fee talent representation service, as defined. This bill would also impose additional disclosure and contract requirements for a talent service, as defined. The bill would make a willful violation of its provisions a misdemeanor and subject to a civil action.

Because the bill would create new crimes, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that there exist in 2 connection with a substantial number of contracts for talent
3 services, sales practices and business and financing methods which 4 have worked a fraud, deceit, imposition, and financial hardship
5 upon the people of this state, particularly upon children and other 6 minors; that existing legal remedies are inadequate to correct these 7 abuses; that the talent industry has a significant impact upon the 8 economy and well-being of this state and its local communities;
9 and that the provisions of this act relating to these are necessary
10 for the public welfare.

11 The Legislature declares that the purpose of this act is to 12 safeguard the public against fraud, deceit, imposition, and financial 13 hardship, and to foster and encourage competition, fair dealing, 14 and prosperity in the field of talent services by prohibiting or 15 restricting false or misleading advertising and other unfair,
16 dishonest, deceptive, destructive, unscrupulous, and fraudulent 17 business practices by which the public has been injured in 18 connection with talent services.

19 Nothing in this act is intended to prohibit talent training services, 20 talent counseling services, and talent listing services from 21 conducting business provided they comply with the provisions and 22 prohibitions set forth in this act.

23 Nothing in this chapter is intended to prohibit legitimate
24 contractual business relationships between artists and bona fide 25 record companies or to excuse a person from complying with 26 Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1700).

SEC. 2. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1701) of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1701) is added to Part 6 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, to read:

5 the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or a deposit in lieu 6 of the bond pursuant to Section 995.710 of the Code of Civil 7 Procedure. The bond shall be executed by a corporate surety
8 qualified to do business in this state and conditioned upon 9 compliance with this chapter. The total aggregate liability on the 14 (b) The bond required by this section shall be in favor of, and 15 payable to, the people of the State of California and shall be for 16 the benefit of any person injured by any unlawful act, omission, 17 or failure to provide the services of the talent service.

19 fee to cover the cost of filing the bond or deposit.

20 (d) (1) Whenever a deposit is made in lieu of the bond otherwise 21 required by this section, the person asserting the claim against the 22 deposit shall establish the claim by furnishing evidence to the 23 Labor Commissioner of injury resulting from an unlawful act, 24 omission, or failure to provide the services of the talent service or 25 of a money judgment entered by a court.

26 (2) When a claimant has established the claim with the Labor
27 Commissioner, the Labor Commissioner shall review and approve
28 the claim and enter the date of the approval thereon. The claim 29 shall be designated an approved claim.

30 (3) When the first claim against a particular deposit has been 31 approved, it shall not be paid until the expiration of a period of 33 Subsequent claims that are approved by the Labor Commissioner 34 within the same 240-day period shall similarly not be paid until 35 the expiration of that 240-day period. Upon the expiration of the 36 240-day period, the Labor Commissioner shall pay all approved 37 claims from that 240-day period in full unless the deposit is 38 insufficient, in which case every approved claim shall be paid a 39 pro rata share of the deposit.

1 (4) Whenever the Labor Commissioner approves the first claim
2 against a particular deposit after the expiration of a 240-day period,
3 the date of approval of that claim shall begin a new 240-day period
4 to which paragraph (3) applies with respect to any amount
5 remaining in the deposit.

6 (5) After a deposit is exhausted, no further claims shall be paid
7 by the Labor Commissioner. Claimants who have had claims paid 8 in full or in part pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) shall not be 9 required to return funds received from the deposit for the benefit 10 of other claimants.

11 (6) Whenever a deposit has been made in lieu of a bond, the 12 amount of the deposit shall not be subject to attachment,
13 garnishment, or execution with respect to an action or judgment 14 against the assignor of the deposit, other than as to an amount as 15 no longer needed or required for the purposes of this chapter and 16 that would otherwise be returned to the assignor of the deposit by 17 the Labor Commissioner.

18 (7) The Labor Commissioner shall return a deposit two years
19 from the date it receives written notification from the assignor of 20 the deposit that the assignor has ceased to engage in the business 21 or act in the capacity of a talent service or has filed a bond pursuant

31 with the Labor Commissioner. The Labor Commissioner shall 32 forward an acknowledgment of receipt of the written notice to the 33 assignor at the address indicated therein, specifying the date of 34 receipt of the written notice and the anticipated date of release of 35 the deposit, provided that there are then no outstanding claims 36 against the deposit.

37 (8) A superior court may order the return of the deposit prior 38 to the expiration of two years upon evidence satisfactory to the 39 court that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit, or 40 order the Labor Commissioner to retain the deposit for a specified

1 period beyond the two years to resolve outstanding claims against 2 the deposit.

3 (9) This subdivision applies to all deposits retained by the Labor
4 Commissioner. The Labor Commissioner shall notify each assignor
5 of a deposit it retains and of the applicability of this section.

6 (10) Compliance with Sections 1700.15 and 1700.16 of this

15 makes, or is represented to make, decisions for the process of hiring 16 artists for employment as an artist, or any talent agent or talent

22 production company.

23 (2) Make or cause to be made any advertisement or 30 by the artist.

31 (3) Charge or attempt to charge an artist for an audition or

32 applicable law, including the obligation to obtain a license under 33 the Talent Agencies Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 34 1700)), prior to procuring, offering, promising, or attempting to 35 procure employment or engagements for artists.
