An act to amend Section 1202.42 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1847, as amended, Furutani. Restitution orders.

Existing law provides for victim restitution orders and restitution fines, as specified. Existing law authorizes procedures for the entry and application of court orders for income deduction upon entry of an order for a restitution fine or for victim restitution, and gives the agency responsible ~~or for~~ the collection of restitution specified powers and duties in regard to these income deduction orders.

~~This bill would provide that the court may, upon a request of the prosecuting attorney, order that the prosecuting attorney be given authority to use lien procedures applicable to the defendant, including, but not limited to, a writ of attachment of property. The bill would further provide that if there is no agency in the county responsible for the collection of restitution, the prosecuting attorney may carry out the functions and duties of such an agency in regard to the income deduction orders described above, as specified.~~

The bill would provide that if there is no agency in the county responsible for the collection of restitution, the county probation office or the prosecuting attorney may carry out the functions and duties of such an agency in regard to the income deduction orders described above, as specified. This bill would further provide, if the defendant fails to meet his or her obligations under the restitution order and the defendant has not provided good cause for the failure, that a court would be authorized, upon the request of the prosecuting attorney, to order the prosecuting attorney be given authority to use lien procedures applicable to the defendant, including, but not limited to, a writ of attachment of property, as specified.

1 SECTION 1. Section 1202.42 of the Penal Code is amended 2 to read:
3 1202.42. Upon entry of a restitution order under subdivision 4 (c) of Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or 5 before September 28, 1994, paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of 6 Section 1202.4 of this code, or Section 1203.04 as operative on or 7 before August 2, 1995, the following shall apply:
8 (a) The court shall enter a separate order for income deduction 9 upon determination of the defendant’s ability to pay, regardless 10 of the probation status, in accordance with Section 1203.
11 Determination of a defendant’s ability to pay may include his or 12 her future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of 13 demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings 14 by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine 15 shall not be required.
16 (b) (1) In any case in which the court enters a separate order 17 for income deduction under this section, the order shall be stayed 18 until the agency in the county responsible for collection of 19 restitution determines that the defendant has failed to meet his or 20 her obligation under the restitution order and the defendant has 21 not provided the agency with good cause for the failure in 22 accordance with paragraph (2).
23 (2) If the agency responsible for collection of restitution receives 24 information that the defendant has failed to meet his or her 25 obligation under the restitution order, the agency shall request the 26 defendant to provide evidence indicating that timely payments 27 have been made or provide information establishing good cause

1 for the failure. If the defendant fails to either provide the agency 2 with the evidence or fails to establish good cause within five days 3 of the request, the agency shall immediately inform the defendant 4 of that fact, and shall inform the clerk of the court in order that an 5 income deduction order will be served pursuant to subdivision (f) 6 following a 15-day appeal period. The defendant may apply for a 7 hearing to contest the lifting of the stay pursuant to subdivision 8 (f).

9 (c) The income deduction order shall direct a payer to deduct 10 from all income due and payable to the defendant the amount 11 required by the court to meet the defendant's obligation.

12 (d) The income deduction order shall be effective so long as the 13 order for restitution upon which it is based is effective or until 14 further order of the court.

15 (e) When the court orders the income deduction, the court shall 16 furnish to the defendant a statement of his or her rights, remedies, 17 and duties in regard to the income deduction order. The statement 18 shall state all of the following:

19 (1) All fees or interest that will be imposed.

20 (2) The total amount of income to be deducted for each pay 21 period.

22 (3) That the income deduction order applies to current and 23 subsequent payers and periods of employment.

24 (4) That a copy of the income deduction order will be served 25 on the defendant's payer or payers.

26 (5) That enforcement of the income deduction order may only 27 be contested on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount 28 of restitution owed.

29 (6) That the defendant is required to notify the clerk of the court 30 within seven days after changes in the defendant's address, payers, 31 and the addresses of his or her payers.

32 (7) That the court order will be stayed in accordance with 33 subdivision (b) and that a hearing is available in accordance with 34 subdivision (f).

35 (f) (1) Upon receiving the notice described in paragraph (2) of 36 subdivision (b), the clerk of the court or officer of the agency 37 responsible for collection of restitution shall serve an income 38 deduction order and the notice to payer on the defendant's payer 39 unless the defendant has applied for a hearing to contest the 40 enforcement of the income deduction order.

1 (2) (A) Service by or upon any person who is a party to a 2 proceeding under this section shall be made in the manner 3 prescribed for service upon parties in a civil action.

4 (B) Service upon the defendant’s payer or successor payer under 5 this section shall be made by prepaid certified mail, return receipt 6 requested.

7 (3) The defendant, within 15 days after being informed that the 8 order staying the income deduction order will be lifted, may apply 9 for a hearing to contest the enforcement of the income deduction 10 order on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of 11 restitution owed or on the ground that the defendant has established 12 good cause for the nonpayment. The timely request for a hearing 13 shall stay the service of an income deduction order on all payers 14 of the defendant until a hearing is held and a determination is made 15 as to whether the enforcement of the income deduction order is 16 proper.

17 (4) The notice to any payer required by this subdivision shall 18 contain only information necessary for the payer to comply with 19 the income deduction order. The notice shall do all of the 20 following:

21 (A) Require the payer to deduct from the defendant’s income 22 the amount specified in the income deduction order, and to pay 23 that amount to the clerk of the court.

24 (B) Instruct the payer to implement the income deduction order 25 no later than the first payment date that occurs more than 14 days 26 after the date the income deduction order was served on the payer.

27 (C) Instruct the payer to forward, within two days after each 28 payment date, to the clerk of the court the amount deducted from 29 the defendant’s income and a statement as to whether the amount 30 totally or partially satisfies the periodic amount specified in the 31 income deduction order.

32 (D) Specify that if a payer fails to deduct the proper amount 33 from the defendant’s income, the payer is liable for the amount 34 the payer should have deducted, plus costs, interest, and reasonable 35 attorney’s fees.

36 (E) Provide that the payer may collect up to five dollars ($5) 37 against the defendant’s income to reimburse the payer for 38 administrative costs for the first income deduction and up to one 39 dollar ($1) for each deduction thereafter.

1 (F) State that the income deduction order and the notice to payer 2 are binding on the payer until further notice by the court or until 3 the payer no longer provides income to the defendant.

4 (G) Instruct the payer that, when he or she no longer provides 5 income to the defendant, he or she shall notify the clerk of the 6 court and shall also provide the defendant's last known address 7 and the name and address of the defendant's new payer, if known, 8 and that, if the payer violates this provision, the payer is subject 9 to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 10 for the first violation or five hundred dollars ($500) for any 11 subsequent violation.

12 (H) State that the payer shall not discharge, refuse to employ, 13 or take disciplinary action against the defendant because of an 14 income deduction order and shall state that a violation of this 15 provision subjects the payer to a civil penalty not to exceed two 16 hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred 17 dollars ($500) for any subsequent violation.

18 (I) Inform the payer that when he or she receives income 19 deduction orders requiring that the income of two or more 20 defendants be deducted and sent to the same clerk of a court, he 21 or she may combine the amounts that are to be paid to the 22 depository in a single payment as long as he or she identifies that 23 portion of the payment attributable to each defendant.

24 (J) Inform the payer that if the payer receives more than one 25 income deduction order against the same defendant, he or she shall 26 contact the court for further instructions.

27 (5) The clerk of the court shall enforce income deduction orders 28 against the defendant's successor payer who is located in this state 29 in the same manner prescribed in this subdivision for the 30 enforcement of an income deduction order against a payer.

31 (6) A person may not discharge, refuse to employ, or take 32 disciplinary action against an employee because of the enforcement 33 of an income deduction order. An employer who violates this 34 provision is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred 35 fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars 36 ($500) for any subsequent violation.

37 (7) When a payer no longer provides income to a defendant, he 38 or she shall notify the clerk of the court and shall provide the 39 defendant's last known address and the name and address of the 40 defendant's new payer, if known. A payer who violates this

1 provision is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred
2 fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars 3 ($500) for a subsequent violation.

4 ~~(g) The court may, upon the request of the prosecuting attorney,~~ 5 ~~order that the prosecuting attorney be given authority to use lien~~ 6 ~~procedures applicable to the defendant, including, but not limited~~ 7 ~~to, a writ of attachment of property.~~

8 (g) If the defendant has failed to meet his or her obligation
9 under the restitution order and the defendant has not provided 10 good cause for the failure in accordance with the process set forth 11 in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the court may, upon the request 12 of the prosecuting attorney, order that the prosecuting attorney 13 be given authority to use lien procedures applicable to the 14 defendant, including, but not limited to, a writ of attachment of 16 the prosecuting attorney in subdivision (h).

17 (1) If the court authorizes a lien or other similar encumbrance 18 on real property pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall, within 19 15 days, furnish to the defendant a statement of his or her rights, 20 remedies, and duties in regard to the order. The statement shall 21 state all of the following:

31 (2).

32 (F) That, upon paying the restitution order in full, the defendant

37 ordered, may apply for a hearing to contest the enforcement order 38 on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of restitution 39 owed or on the ground that the defendant has established good 40 cause for the nonpayment. The timely request for a hearing shall

1 stay any execution on the lien until a hearing is held and a 2 determination is made as to whether the enforcement order is 3 proper.

4 (3) Upon payment of the restitution order in full, the defendant 5 may petition the court to issue an order directing the clerk of the 6 court to execute a full reconveyance of title, a certificate of
