An act to amend Section 1379 of, and to add Section 1375.7 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1211, as amended, Romero. Unemployment insurance: benefits: eligibility: overpayments: elected officials.

Under existing law, any person who receives an overpayment of unemployment compensation benefits is liable for the amount overpaid. Existing law also permits the Director of Employment Development to take specified steps to recover overpayment of unemployment compensation benefits and unemployment compensation disability benefits, including filing a civil action against the liable person within one year after certain actions have been taken. Existing law also permits the director to initiate summary judgment proceedings against a liable person to recover overpayment of unemployment compensation benefits due to fraud, misrepresentation, or willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient.

This bill would require the Director of Employment Development to find an overpayment of unemployment benefits where the individual who received them was an elected official whose claim was based solely on income received as an elected official. This bill would permit the director, in addition to filing a civil action against the liable person for the overpayment amount, to initiate summary judgment proceedings against such a person to recover these overpayment amounts, as provided.

Existing law requires every employer, with specified exceptions, to pay contributions to the Unemployment Fund at specified rates, for the purpose of funding unemployment insurance benefits for eligible unemployed workers. Existing law defines “employment” for those purposes and, with respect to certain public entities, exempts from that definition certain services performed by an individual in the exercise of his or her duties as an elected official.

This bill would require the Employment Development Department, by July 1, 2011, to adopt regulations to clarify that the above-described provision governing eligibility for unemployment compensation excludes elected officials from coverage under the unemployment insurance compensation system for purposes of benefit eligibility. The bill would also require the department to revise language in a specified California employment guide with regard to the exclusion of elected officials from unemployment insurance coverage and benefit eligibility, as specified.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 1375.7 is added to the Unemployment
- 2 Insurance Code, to read:
- 3 1375.7. The director shall find that an individual has been
- 4 overpaid unemployment benefits where the individual was an
- 5 elected official and the individual’s unemployment insurance claim
- 6 was based on income solely derived from his or her employment
- 7 as an elected official. An individual who is liable pursuant to this
- 8 section shall not be eligible for waiver of the overpayment pursuant
- 9 to Section 1375. In the event of an unemployment insurance claim

1 based on more than one source of income, if the base period of a
2 new claim includes any wage credits earned as an elected official 3 pursuant to Section 634.5, the individual shall be liable for any 4 amount of unemployment insurance benefits overpaid as a result
5 of a recomputation to remove the base period wage credits earned
6 as an elected official. In that event, the provisions of Section 1375
7 shall not apply to this section with respect to the wage credits
8 earned as an elected official.

9 SEC. 2. Section 1379 of the Unemployment Insurance Code
10 is amended to read:

11 1379. The director, subject to this article, may do any or all of 12 the following in the recovery of overpayments of unemployment
13 compensation benefits:

14 (a) File a civil action against the liable person for the recovery 15 of the amount of the overpayment within one year after any of the 16 following, or, in cases where the individual has been overpaid
17 benefits due to fraud, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure as 18 described in Section 1375.1, or where the director has found an 19 overpayment pursuant to Section 1375.7, within three years of any 20 of the following:

21 (1) The mailing or personal service of the notice of overpayment
22 determination if the person affected does not file an appeal to an 23 administrative law judge.

24 (2) The mailing of the decision of the administrative law judge 25 if the person affected does not initiate a further appeal to the 26 appeals board.

27 (3) The date of the decision of the appeals board.

28 (b) Initiate proceedings for a summary judgment against the 29 liable person. However, this subdivision applies only where the 30 director has found, pursuant to Section 1375, that the overpayment
31 may not be waived because it was due to fraud, misrepresentation, 32 or willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient or where the 33 director has found an overpayment pursuant to Section 1375.7.
34 The director may, not later than three years after the overpayment
35 became final, file with the clerk of the proper court in the county
36 from which the overpayment of benefits was paid or in the county 37 in which the claimant resides, a certificate containing all of the 38 following:

1 (1) The amount due, including any assessment made under 2 Section 1375.1, plus interest from the date that the initial 3 determination of overpayment was made pursuant to Section 1376.

4 (2) A statement that the director has complied with all the 5 provisions of this article prior to the filing of the certificate.

6 (3) A request that judgment be entered against the liable person
7 in the amount set forth in the certificate.

8 The clerk, immediately upon the filing of the certificate, shall 9 enter a judgment for the State of California against the liable person
10 in the amount set forth in the certificate.

11 For the purposes of this subdivision only, an overpayment is 12 final and due and payable after any of the following:

13 (A) The liable person has not filed an appeal pursuant to Section 14 1377.

15 (B) The liable person has filed an appeal to the administrative 16 law judge and a decision of an administrative law judge has become 17 final.

18 (C) The liable person has filed an appeal to the appeals board 19 and the decision of the appeals board has become final because 20 the liable person has not sought judicial review within the 21 six-month period provided by Section 410.

22 (c) Reduce or vacate a summary judgment by filing a certificate
23 to that effect with the clerk of the proper court.

24 (d) Offset the amount of the overpayment received by the liable 25 person against any amount of benefits to which he or she may 26 become entitled under this division within six years of the date of 27 the mailing or personal service of the notice of overpayment
28 determination.

29 SEC. 3. Not later than July 1, 2011, the Employment
30 Development Department shall adopt regulations to clarify that 31 paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 634.5 of the 32 Unemployment Insurance Code excludes elected officials from 33 coverage under the unemployment insurance compensation system
34 for purposes of benefit eligibility. The department shall also revise 35 current language in the California Employer’s Guide to state make 36 clear that an elected official is not eligible to collect unemployment 37 benefits based on income earned from his or her service as an 38 elected official.
