WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows graduated from the Orfalea College of Business in 2007 and was active in the leadership of his business fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows chose a career to help others, obtained an Emergency Medical Technician certificate from Cuesta Community College in San Luis Obispo, and began working at the San Luis Ambulance Service; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows began his service with the San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Search and Rescue (SAR) unit in February of 2008. Mr. Meadows' energy, personality, and strong desire to help others drove him to strive for a high level of success in all his endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows had completed his probationary period with the SAR unit, received the award of 2009 Probationary Member of the Year in the unit, and, as a full member of the unit, was soon to be promoted to Medical Team Leader; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows was working with the SAR unit at the Oceano Dunes on May 24, 2009. He was responding to a medical emergency when a tragic accident claimed his life, a risk he took willingly to help others; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows is the first member of the SAR unit to be lost in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, According to longstanding tradition, the Board of Supervisors and the Sheriff's Office of San Luis Obispo County joined in a resolution to christen a Patrol and Rescue Boat in Christopher Meadows' honor; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Meadows' spirit also lives on in the form of the Christopher Meadows Memorial Paramedic Education Fund, which has awarded paramedic scholarships to four students since 2010; and

WHEREAS, CAL-FIRE, Cal Poly College of Business, Cuesta College, Dignity Health Central Coast, the French Hospital Medical Center, the Morro Bay Fire Department, the Morro Bay Fire Fighters' Association, the Oceano Dunes District of the Department of Parks and Recreation, San Luis Ambulance, the San Luis Obispo County Board of Supervisors, the San Luis Obispo County Deputy Sheriff's Association, the San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Advisory Council, the City of San Luis Obispo Fire Department, the San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Search and Rescue, the Sierra Vista Regional Medical Center, and the State Park Peace Officers of Oceano Dunes District all support this resolution as a fitting tribute to Mr. Meadows' service and sacrifice; and

WHEREAS, In honor of Mr. Meadows' service and sacrifice, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 101, in the vicinity of the San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Headquarters, in the County of San Luis Obispo, as the Christopher Meadows Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, The men and women who serve Californians as engineers and closely related professionals throughout state government are persons of skill, intelligence, and advanced training who deserve to be recognized for their dedicated service; and

WHEREAS, California's state engineers and related professionals have paid a high price in serving our state with at least 37 on-the-job deaths in their ranks over the last century; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature desires to promote the safety of the state's employees and to encourage motorists traveling in and through the state to exercise caution and care when encountering a work zone; and

WHEREAS, California's state engineers design and inspect the state's highways and bridges, ensure that schools and hospitals are safe during earthquakes, improve air and water quality, work to reduce fossil fuel emissions, and perform countless other professional functions that create jobs and protect public safety in our state; and

WHEREAS, The Professional Engineers in California Government (PECG) was organized in 1962 in the San Francisco Bay area to represent state engineers and address the safety concerns associated with state service; and

WHEREAS, PECG is, therefore, celebrating its 50th anniversary as an organization in 2012; and

WHEREAS, PECG represents approximately 13,000 professional engineers, architects, land surveyors, engineering geologists, and closely related professionals serving the public in state government; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature honors the state engineers and related professionals who have lost their lives serving the public and commends PECG members for their exemplary work designing and inspecting infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, It would be a fitting tribute to past, present, and future state engineers and related professionals and PECG's 50th anniversary to designate the interchange of State Highway Route 5 and State Highway Route 50 in the County of Sacramento as the California State Engineer Memorial Interchange to recognize the dedicated public service of California's state engineers and related professionals; and

WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Christian Vasquez was born in the City of Hanford on July 11, 1987, and grew up in the City of Coalinga; and

WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Vasquez was killed in action in the province of Al Anbar, Iraq, on August 2, 2007; and

WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Vasquez is survived by his mother, Natividad Molina, his step father, Martin Bravo, and his brothers, Danny Vasquez and Alex Bravo; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Lance Corporal Vasquez's service and sacrifice, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 198 in the County of Kings in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer Saul Martinez was born November 15, 1958, to Fidel and Amparo in Villa Juarez, San Luis Potosi, Mexico; and

WHEREAS, Prior to joining the CHP, Officer Martinez was a volunteer for the United Farm Workers of America and worked alongside Cesar Chavez for almost 10 years. Throughout his time with the United Farm Workers, he held several roles, some of which included translator, contract administrator, and negotiator; and

WHEREAS, On May 8, 1989, Officer Martinez graduated from the CHP Academy with Cadet Training Class IV-88 and was assigned to the Indio area where, on a talk radio show "El Protector," he informed the public about new laws, seatbelt usage, drinking and driving, and other safety issues. He also visited schools to educate children on safety issues, and would often read to the children corresponding books; and

WHEREAS, On May 8, 1997, Officer Martinez and his partner, James “Donovan” Rice, were investigating a vehicle parked on the shoulder of a road north of Palm Springs, when, out of nowhere, an oncoming car, traveling more than 15 feet off the roadway, came rushing towards the officers. Without hesitation, Officer Martinez shoved his partner to safety, only to be struck and critically injured; and

WHEREAS, On May 10, 1997, Officer Martinez’s son, Saul Jr., and his two brothers, Ben and Rafael, received the “Latino Peace Officer of the Year Award” for 1996 on Officer Martinez’s behalf, as he lay critically injured in the hospital. The award was presented by the Latino Peace Officer’s Association of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties; and

WHEREAS, Officer Martinez succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced dead on May 16, 1997; and

WHEREAS, At Officer Martinez’s funeral, Governor Pete Wilson met privately with friends and family to present the California Medal of Valor to Officer Martinez’s wife. The Governor said, “The medal is an award to Saul for the courage he gave in sacrificing his own life to save his partner, Donovan Rice. The medal cannot begin to constitute the loss, but through his family, the medal speaks recognition through the state for the loved one they lost. This medal is given on behalf of those lives he touched and made so much better. Fellow officers said he was, and is, the best we had”; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Saul Martinez’s contributions and sacrifice in serving the Department of the California Highway Patrol and the citizens of California, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 86S, in the County of Riverside, as the CHP Officer Saul Martinez Memorial Highway in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer Charles H. Sorenson was born September 6, 1930, to Earl and RoseMae, in Petaluma, California; and

WHEREAS, In 1957, Officer Sorenson, badge number 2341, graduated from the CHP Academy. He was assigned to the El Centro area and later transferred to the Sacramento area; and

WHEREAS, Officer Sorenson was a hard-working, dedicated officer who loved his job and enjoyed the people he worked with. He was known for his honesty, fairness, and dedication, and for being a loyal father and family man. In his spare time, he enjoyed spending time with his family, playing golf, and building his 18-foot inboard jet boat named “10-4”; and

WHEREAS, On March 15, 1963, Officer Sorenson was killed in the line of duty while pursuing a suspect in his vehicle. During the chase, the suspect lost control of his vehicle, crashed, and continued to flee on foot. When Officer Sorenson got out of his car to continue pursuit, a second suspect, of whom he was unaware, ambushed Officer Sorenson and fired two shots with a stolen handgun at point blank range; and

WHEREAS, In honor of Officer Sorenson’s service and sacrifice, it would be a fitting tribute to designate in his honor a portion of State Highway

Route 12 in the County of Sacramento as the CHP Officer Charles “Chuck” Sorenson Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, Officer Charles Richard Lilly was born on June 24, 1937, to Charles and Margaret, in Portola, California; and

WHEREAS, In 1964, Officer Lilly, badge number 4029, graduated from the CHP Academy with the Cadet Training Class III-65 and was assigned to the San Jose area; and

WHEREAS, Officer Lilly was a genuine person, a dedicated officer, and family man. He was known for his charisma and his ability to get along well with others; and

WHEREAS, In his spare time, Officer Lilly enjoyed listening to music and attending church. He also had a keen interest in law and attended a semester at Lincoln Law University in San Jose, California; and

WHEREAS, On October 29, 1967, Officer Lilly was killed in the line of duty during a routine traffic stop. As the officer was exiting the patrol car, his partner drove on to pursue another vehicle. A third vehicle, the driver of which was later known to be intoxicated, veered off the road and fatally struck Officer Lilly; and

WHEREAS, In honor of Officer Charles Lilly’s service and sacrifice, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 101 in the County of Santa Clara as the CHP Officer Charles Lilly Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, Jere Melo was born November 12, 1941, and grew up in Mount Shasta, California; and

WHEREAS, Jere Melo spent two years on active duty with the United States Army, including a 13-month tour on the 38th parallel in Korea, in command of a Hawk Missile site; and

WHEREAS, Jere Melo’s career in the timber industry spanned 45 years. He worked as a forester for the Union Lumber Company in Fort Bragg and as a contractor for Campbell Timberland Management, and dedicated his life to keeping the woods safe for timber workers and to protecting forestland from degradation by illegal trespassing, marijuana cultivation, dumping, and encampments; and

WHEREAS, Jere Melo began his long and distinguished political career in 1992 when he was appointed to serve on the Fort Bragg Planning Commission. In 1996, he was elected to his first term on the Fort Bragg City Council. Jere served as Vice Mayor from 1998 to 2000, inclusive, and as Mayor from 2000 to 2004, inclusive. At the time of his death, Jere was in his 15th year and his fourth term of office as a city council member. He was very active in the League of California Cities, was the city chair for the Board of the Fort Bragg Fire Protection Authority, and for 13 years served on the Board of the Mendocino County Local Agency Formation Commission. In addition, he also had a very strong commitment to the local fishing industry serving on the Noyo Watershed Alliance, the Board of the Mendocino Coast Sports Foundation, and the Board of the Fort Bragg-Otsuchi, along with his wife; and

WHEREAS, Jere Melo was murdered on August 27, 2011, at the age of 69, while patrolling for illegal marijuana growth on Hawthorne property in Fort Bragg; and

WHEREAS, In honor of Jere Melo's service to his country and community, it would be a fitting tribute to designate the portion of State Highway Route 1 in the City of Fort Bragg, as the Jere Melo Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, Officers Frederick Wayne Enright and Adolfo Martinez Hernandez made the ultimate sacrifice while performing their sworn duty, and in recognition thereof, we pay special tribute to their bravery and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Officer Frederick Wayne Enright was born August 27, 1944, to Francis Xavier and Mary Alice, in Louisiana, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Officer Enright, badge number 7857, graduated from the CHP Academy in March of 1972 with the Cadet Training Class V-71, and upon graduation he was assigned to the West Valley area; and

WHEREAS, After only six months with the CHP, Officer Enright achieved the rank of pilot and was transferred to the Golden Gate Division in the San Francisco Bay Area; and

WHEREAS, As a helicopter pilot, Officer Enright responded to numerous land and water rescue operations and routinely flew commute traffic observation for bay area highways and freeways; and

WHEREAS, During one of Officer Enright's patrols, he encountered a drunk pilot, ordered him to land and escorted him to the ground, where the pilot was arrested. Not only was this a dangerous encounter, but the aircraft suffered power failure and Officer Enright successfully landed the helicopter without damage or injury. The CHP subsequently commended him for his exceptional skill and decisionmaking during this incident; and

WHEREAS, Officer Adolfo Martinez Hernandez was born September 27, 1940, to Tiburcio and Juana in Etiwanda, California, and is one of 12 children; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hernandez, badge number 4876, graduated from the CHP Academy in 1966, and proudly served the citizens of California for nine years; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hernandez was a devoted officer, husband, and father. He was known for his big heart and immense love for his family and friends, even when some of them were "unlovable." He enjoyed playing with his children, motorcycles, refurbishing a Volks Wagen van, making wood carvings, creating leather items including wallets, handbags, sandals, belts, and a special holder for his CHP badge. He also loved "do-it-yourself" projects and built a bicycle seat for his daughter, a bike rack for his car, and a bookcase and small end table that his son still has in his home today; and

WHEREAS, On June 27, 1975, the State of California suffered a tragic loss when CHP Officers Frederick Wayne Enright and Adolfo Martinez Hernandez were killed in a helicopter crash caused by mechanical failure; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Frederick Wayne Enright and Officer Adolfo Martinez Hernandez's service and sacrifice, it would be a fitting tribute to designate in their honor the Grimmer Boulevard Bridge in the City of Fremont, on State Highway Route 680, as CHP Officers Frederick Wayne Enright and Adolfo Martinez Hernandez Memorial Bridge; and

WHEREAS, Officer Michael Allen Brandt was born November 14, 1952, to Robert and Evelyn, in Bellingham, Washington; and

WHEREAS, In 1980, Officer Michael Allen Brandt, graduated from the California Highway Patrol Academy with the Cadet Training Class IV-79 and was assigned to the El Centro area and later transferred to the Indio area, where he spent the remainder of his career; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his career with the CHP, Officer Brandt held several titles, some of which included a Field Training Officer, Physical Methods of Arrest Instructor, Physical Performance Program Coordinator, and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) instructor; and

WHEREAS, On April 6, 1987, Officer Brandt was killed in the line of duty. While pursuing a reported drunk driver, he lost control of his vehicle and struck a boulder, which caused his patrol vehicle to overturn. He was taken to a nearby hospital, but succumbed to his injuries while in transport; and

WHEREAS, Officer Brandt was admired for his passion for life, loyalty to others, love for his job as a California Highway Patrolman, dedication to his family and friends, integrity, honesty, and quiet voice. He had a competitive nature about him, both in sports and in his personal life, and never turned down a challenge; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Michael Allen Brandt's contributions and sacrifices in serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 74 in the County of Riverside as the CHP Officer Michael Allen Brandt Memorial Highway in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer William "Ivan" Casselman was born in 1902 to Anson and Lucy in Ontario, Canada; and

WHEREAS, Officer "Ivan" Casselman, was killed in the line of duty on August 24, 1935, when his motorcycle struck the back of a truck; and

WHEREAS, Officer Casselman was well liked and respected in the community. He was admired for his integrity and approachability; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Casselman's contributions and sacrifice in serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 80 in the County of Yolo as the CHP Officer William "Ivan" Casselman Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, Officer James Christopher O'Connor was born on July 9, 1956; and

WHEREAS, On December 23, 1982, Officer James Christopher O'Connor, graduated from the California Highway Patrol Academy and was assigned to the West Valley area. He completed motorcycle training on February 28, 1985, and was transferred to the Ventura area, where he spent the remainder of his career; and

WHEREAS, Officer O'Connor was killed in the line of duty on November 15, 1990, at approximately 1524 hours. He and three fellow motor officers were traveling home from a divisionwide motorcycle training day in Santa Maria. A 1986 Ford Thunderbird, driven by a 78-year-old driver, failed to turn her vehicle at a curve and crossed over the center line into the group of officers. Officer O'Connor was struck head-on and thrown approximately 60 feet. During the impact, he was knocked out of his helmet and boots; and

WHEREAS, Officer O'Connor's fellow officers called for help and immediately began cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR). He was transported to a nearby hospital, but succumbed to his injuries; and

WHEREAS, Officer O'Connor was a good man and a good officer. He was known for his skill in riding motorcycles and his ability to get into accidents when driving an automobile. One day, while on patrol, Officer O'Connor managed to crash his patrol car into the center divider at approximately 75 mph while trying to split traffic; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer James Christopher O'Connor's contributions and sacrifice in serving the Department of the California Highway Patrol and the citizens of California, it would be a fitting tribute to designate the interchange at State Highway Route 154 and State Highway Route 101 in the County of Santa Barbara as the CHP Officer James C. O'Connor Memorial Interchange; and

WHEREAS, Officer Ambers O'Neal "Sonny" Shewmaker was born October 10, 1941, to Earl and Eva Shewmaker in Santa Maria, California; and

WHEREAS, California Highway Patrol Cadet A.O. "Sonny" Shewmaker entered the Department of the California Highway Patrol Academy on March 3, 1969, and upon graduation was assigned to the Riverside area office and was later transferred to the Banning area office where he spent the remainder of his career; and

WHEREAS, On November 23, 1969, Officer "Sonny" Shewmaker, stopped a vehicle for speeding. Unbeknownst to him, the car was stolen and the driver was wanted for an earlier robbery in Riverside, California. As Officer Shewmaker was using his radio, the suspect shot him point blank in the head. Officer Shewmaker was taken to a hospital, but succumbed to his injuries on the morning of November 24, 1969; and

WHEREAS, In 1970, the Yucaipa Valley Little League created the "Sonny Shewmaker Award for Best Sportsmanship" in honor of Officer Shewmaker's dedication to helping the youth of Yucaipa Valley. Oddly enough, in 1973, the recipient of this award was a 12-year-old Brian Rezendes, who many years later married Officer Shewmaker's sister-in-law, Kim; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Shewmaker's contributions and sacrifice in serving and protecting the citizens of California, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 10 in the unincorporated area in the County of Riverside as the CHP Officer Ambers O. “Sonny” Shewmaker Memorial Highway; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Darrell Keith Lee, of the City of Rialto, passed away on July 24, 1970, when he suffered a heart attack as a result of an injury sustained in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Lee was born to Minnie Price (Lee) of Texas and Glenn Lee of Oklahoma on February 7, 1932, in Southard, Oklahoma; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Lee attended Rialto Junior High and San Bernardino High School in the cities of Rialto and San Bernardino, respectively; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Lee served in the United States Marine Corps in Japan and Korea. He joined the Rialto Police Department in 1958, and was promoted to Sergeant in 1963; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Lee was a lifelong resident of Rialto, California, and was a great public speaker who enjoyed speaking with all the local groups; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Gary Wayne Wolfley, of the City of Rialto, passed away on March 3, 1986, when he was shot while handling a call for service in the City of Rialto; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wolfley was born to William and Patricia Wolfley on September 22, 1955, in the Black Hills of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wolfley attended Eisenhower High School in the City of Rialto. During his teenage years, he was a Rialto Police Cadet and a member of the Civil Air Patrol; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wolfley worked for the City of Rialto as a police dispatcher until he realized his dream of becoming a police officer in 1977. In March 1985, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Wolfley was well known in the community and was always there to help his friends and family; and

WHEREAS, Sergio Carrera Jr., of the City of Rialto, passed away on October 18, 2007, when he was shot and killed during a raid for illegal drugs; and

WHEREAS, Officer Carrera was born to Sergio Carrera Sr. and Aurora Lopez on March 5, 1978, in Lynwood, California; and

WHEREAS, Officer Carrera attended Valley View High School in Moreno Valley, California, and San Bernardino Valley College, where he completed his police academy training in 2003; and

WHEREAS, Officer Carrera was a four-year veteran of the Rialto Police Department and a member of the SWAT team; and

WHEREAS, Officer Carrera was a loving husband and wonderful father, was well-known for his contagious sense of humor and laughter, and was uncomplicated and straightforward in his relationships, which allowed him to accept people for who they were; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of the sacrifices made by Sergeant Lee, Sergeant Wolfley, and Officer Carrera, it would be a fitting tribute to designate a portion of State Highway Route 10 in the City of Rialto as the Sergeant Darrell Keith Lee, Sergeant Gary Wayne Wolfley, and Officer Sergio Carrera Jr. Memorial Highway in their honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer Mark Thomas Taylor was born on May 17, 1959, to Thomas Claude and Lola Dee, in Benton Harbor, Michigan; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor graduated from Benton Harbor High School in 1977 and joined the United States Marine Corps shortly thereafter; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor served in the United States Marine Corps from 1977 to 1984 and achieved the rank of Sergeant (E-5). After an honorable discharge, he applied to the CHP; and

WHEREAS, On March 18, 1985, Officer Taylor graduated from the CHP Academy and was assigned to the Indio area; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor married the love of his life, Brenda Renee Kirby, on December 3, 1977, and had a beautiful daughter, Kristie Lee, born on September 14, 1978; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor was killed in the line of duty on November 26, 1987, during a routine traffic stop. While issuing a citation, the offender's car was struck by another vehicle. The impact propelled Officer Taylor onto the highway, where he was struck by the same vehicle that had originally collided with the offender's car; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor was a dedicated officer, family man, and a best friend to many. He was known for his sense of humor and for making people smile. In his spare time, he enjoyed spending time with family and friends, being outdoors, running, traveling, and playing ping pong; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor was admired for his honesty, loyalty, and determination. He always accomplished what he set out to do and never gave up; and

WHEREAS, Officer Taylor is survived by his wife, Brenda, daughter, Kristie, and grandchildren, Mikayla (born April 21, 1996), Triniti (born December 10, 2002), and Scarlett (born December 26, 2008); and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer Mark Thomas Taylor's contribution and sacrifice in serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it would be fitting to designate the State Highway Route 10 and Date Palm Drive Memorial Overcrossing, in the County of Riverside, as the CHP Mark Thomas Taylor Memorial Overcrossing in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer John "Jack" Walter Armatoski was born on May 1, 1917, to August and Sophie, in Ironwood, Michigan; and

WHEREAS, Upon graduation from the CHP Academy in 1948, Officer Armatoski was assigned to the Needles area; and

WHEREAS, Officer Armatoski was killed in the line of duty on May 1, 1953, during a routine traffic stop. After he completed the traffic citation, Officer Armatoski was approaching the violator's car on the left side when an intoxicated motorist, driving a stolen station wagon, sideswiped the parked vehicle and struck Officer Armatoski, killing him instantly; and

WHEREAS, Officer Armatoski was a devoted officer, a loyal husband, and an amazing father. He was known for his integrity and his adoration of his wife and children; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer John “Jack” Armatoski’s contributions and sacrifice in serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it would be fitting to designate a portion of State Highway Route 40 in the County of San Bernardino, as the CHP Officer John “Jack” Armatoski Memorial Highway in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer A. Donald Hoover was born on January 1, 1903, in Wichita, Kansas, to John and Pearl Hoover; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hoover was an eight-year veteran of the CHP, and served in the County of Santa Cruz; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hoover was killed on August 31, 1934, while traveling on the Santa Cruz-Watsonville Highway, on a stretch known to locals as “Slaughterhouse Curve,” when his motorcycle collided with an automobile, traveling in the opposite direction, that began turning onto a side road in front of him. The impact of the collision caused Officer Hoover to lose and never regain consciousness; and

WHEREAS, Officer Hoover’s dedication and service will be remembered throughout the CHP and law enforcement community for years, as the loss was not just to family, friends, and coworkers, but to the entire community and the state that Officer Hoover served; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer A. Donald Hoover’s ultimate sacrifice made while serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it is appropriate to dedicate a portion of State Route 1 in the County of Santa Cruz as the CHP Officer A. Donald Hoover Memorial Highway in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Officer William Prestige Sniffen was born on September 11, 1941, to William and Elsie, in Honolulu, Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, Upon graduation from the CHP Academy in July 1966, Officer Sniffen was transferred to the San Leandro area and was later transferred to the Oakland area; and

WHEREAS, Officer Sniffen was killed in the line of duty on April 5, 1973, while pursuing a speeding motorist on the Nimitz Freeway. The vehicle he was pursuing rear-ended another car and burst into flames. Officer Sniffen was unable to stop and slid underneath the burning vehicle; and

WHEREAS, Officer Sniffen was a hard-working and dedicated officer who loved his job and enjoyed the people he worked with. He was known for his love and devotion to his wife and children, his charismatic personality, and for teaching others baton and other self-defense tactics. In his spare time, Officer Sniffen enjoyed spending time with his family and attending various martial arts classes. He was a third-degree black belt in Judo and a fourth-degree black belt in Jujitsu; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Officer William P. Sniffen’s contributions and sacrifice in serving the CHP and the citizens of California, it would be fitting to designate a portion of Interstate 880 in the County of Alameda, as the CHP Officer William P. Sniffen Memorial Highway in his honor; now, therefore, be it
