The measure would also request the Department of Transportation to determine the cost of appropriate signs showing this special designation and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering that cost, to erect those signs.

WHEREAS, Corporal Jared Verbeek was born May 23, 1989, in Visalia, California, to Travis and Rosalia Verbeek. Corporal Verbeek's father served in the United States Marine Corps until his retirement and his example of dedication impressed upon his son the need to also serve his country; and

WHEREAS, From an early age, Corporal Verbeek sought the opportunity to wear a uniform in service of his country, including joining the Boy Scouts of America and earning 13 merit badges within his first month; and

WHEREAS, Always striving to do more, and be more, than an average person, Corporal Verbeek participated in many team sports in high school, including baseball, basketball, football, track and field, and cross country; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Verbeek maintained a high GPA in high school while working with the Tulare County Sheriff, where he assisted in background and training documentation, and attended Congressman Devin Nunes' military academy at night to learn more about obtaining a commission as a military officer. recruit training in San Diego, California, immediately after his graduation from high school; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Verbeek graduated recruit training on February 1, 2008, and was assigned as a recruiter assistant at the Visalia recruiting substation, which pleased Corporal Verbeek because he could stay near his beloved family longer; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Verbeek was assigned to Marine combat training at Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton in Santa Margarita, California, followed by an order to Fort Lenard Wood, Missouri, where he went through his military occupational speciality training for military police, his chosen field. He then received his first duty assignment with the Military Police (MP) Company at Camp Pendleton; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Verbeek married his best friend, Vanessa Salazar, and the couple had a little boy whom they named Jacob, in December of 2008; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Verbeek's service awards include the Purple Heart, the Combat Action Ribbon, the National Defense Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, the Marine Corps Good Conduct Medal, and the Afghanistan Campaign Medal, and a nomination for a posthumous Purple Heart; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of Corporal Verbeek's great contributions and sacrifice in service of the United States Marine Corps and his country, it would be a fitting tribute to designate an overcrossing of State Highway Route 198 in his hometown, the City of Visalia, as the Corporal Jared Verbeek Memorial Overcrossing; now, therefore, be it
