An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 8465 of the Probate Code, relating to estates.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1670, as amended, Lara. Estates: administration.

Existing law governs the administration of the estates of decedents. Under existing law, when an individual dies intestate, a court is authorized to appoint certain specified persons to act as that individual's personal representative and to administer the individual's estate. Further, existing law prescribes an order of preference for appointment among those persons.

This bill would, until January 1, 2016, expand a court's appointment authority by authorizing the court to appoint an administrator who is nominated by a person who is not a United States resident if the nominator would otherwise be entitled to appointment as an administrator of the decedent's estate. Under the bill, the court would be required to consider whether the nominee is capable of faithfully executing the duties of the office, taking into account specified factors. The bill would also require the approved nominee to obtain bond, except as specified. The bill would prohibit the appointment of a nominee who is not a California resident. Under the bill, an administrator who ceases to be a California resident would be deemed to have resigned as the administrator.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 8465 of the Probate Code is amended to 2 read:

3 8465. (a) The court may appoint as administrator a person
4 nominated by any of the following persons:

- 5 (1) A person otherwise entitled to appointment.
- 6 (2) A person who would otherwise be entitled for appointment 7 but who is ineligible for appointment under paragraph (4) of 8 subdivision (a) of Section 8402 because he or she is not a resident
9 of the United States.

10 (3) The guardian or conservator of the estate of a person
11 otherwise entitled to appointment. The nomination shall be made 12 in writing and filed with the court.

13 (b) If a person making a nomination for appointment of an 14 administrator is the surviving spouse or domestic partner, child,
15 grandchild, other issue, parent, brother or sister, or grandparent of 16 the decedent, the nominee has priority next after those in the class
17 of the person making the nomination.

18 (c) If a person making a nomination for appointment of an 19 administrator is other than a person described in subdivision (b),
20 the court in its discretion may appoint either the nominee or a
21 person of a class lower in priority to that of the person making the 22 nomination, but other persons of the class of the person making
23 the nomination have priority over the nominee.

24 (d) If a person making a nomination for appointment of an 25 administrator is a person described in paragraph (2) of subdivision
26 (a), the court shall not appoint a nominee who is not a California
27 resident to act as administrator. For California residents 28 nominated under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall 29 consider whether the nominee is capable of faithfully executing 30 the duties of the office. The court may in its discretion deny the 31 appointment and appoint another person. In determining whether 32 to appoint the nominee, the factors the court may consider include,
33 but are not limited to, the following:

1 (1) Whether the nominee has a conflict of interest with the heirs
2 or any other interested party.

3 (2) Whether the nominee had a business or personal relationship
4 with the decedent or decedent's family before the decedent's death.

5 (3) Whether the nominee is engaged in or acting on behalf of 6 an individual, a business, or other entity that solicits heirs to obtain 7 the person's nomination for appointment as administrator.

8 (4) Whether the nominee has been appointed as a personal
9 representative in any other estate.

10 (e) If the court decides to appoint a nominee under the 11 circumstances described in subdivision (d), the court shall require 12 the nominee to obtain bond, unless the court orders otherwise for 13 good cause. Any order for good cause must be supported by 14 specific findings of fact, and shall consider the need for the 15 protection of creditors, heirs, and any other interested parties.
16 Before waiving a bond, the court shall consider all other
17 alternatives, including, but not limited to, the deposit of property
18 in the estate pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 19 9700) of Part 5 on the condition that the property, including any 20 earnings thereon, will not be withdrawn except on authorization
21 of the court. The waiver of all of the heirs of the requirement of a 22 bond shall not constitute good cause.

23 (f) If the appointed nominee ceases to be a California resident 24 following his or her appointment, he or she shall be deemed to 25 have resigned as administrator for the purposes of Article 7
26 (commencing with Section 8520). The court shall not lose
27 jurisdiction of the proceeding by any resignation under this 28 subdivision.

29 (g) By accepting appointment as personal representative, the 30 nominee shall submit personally to the jurisdiction of the court.

31 ~~(t)~~

32 (h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2016, 33 and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that 34 is enacted before January 1, 2016, deletes or extends that date.

35 SEC. 2. Section 8465 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

36 8465. (a) The court may appoint as administrator a person
37 nominated by a person otherwise entitled to appointment or by the 38 guardian or conservator of the estate of a person otherwise entitled 39 to appointment. The nomination shall be made in writing and filed 40 with the court.

- 1 (b) If a person making a nomination for appointment of an
2 administrator is the surviving spouse or domestic partner, child,
3 grandchild, other issue, parent, brother or sister, or grandparent of
4 the decedent, the nominee has priority next after those in the class
5 of the person making the nomination.
- 6 (c) If a person making a nomination for appointment of an
7 administrator is other than a person described in subdivision (b),
8 the court in its discretion may appoint either the nominee or a
9 person of a class lower in priority to that of the person making the 10 nomination, but other persons of the class of the person making
11 the nomination have priority over the nominee.
- 12 (d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2016.
