

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1902

Introduced by Assembly Member Jones

February 22, 2012

An act to add Section 6009 to the Government Code, relating to official advertising.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1902, as introduced, Jones. Publication: newspaper of general circulation: Internet Web site.

Existing law requires that various types of notices are provided in a newspaper of general circulation. Existing law requires a newspaper of general circulation to meet certain criteria, including, among others, that it be published and have a substantial distribution to paid subscribers in the city, district, or judicial district in which it is seeking adjudication.

This bill would provide that a newspaper that is available on an Internet Web site may also qualify as a newspaper of general circulation, provided that newspaper meets certain criteria.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 6009 is added to the Government Code,
- 2 to read:
- 3 6009. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, a newspaper that is
- 4 available on an Internet Web site is a “newspaper of general
- 5 circulation” if it meets the following criteria:

- 1 (1) It provides local, national, or international news and 2 intelligence of a general character on its Internet Web site.
- 3 (2) It has been established and updated at regular intervals of 4 not less than weekly for at least three years prior to the date of 5 adjudication.
- 6 (3) It has a substantial regular readership in the city, district, or 7 judicial district in which the newspaper is seeking adjudication
8 pursuant to subdivision (b).
- 9 (4) It has a bona fide list of subscribers that reside in the city,
10 district, or judicial district in which the newspaper is seeking 11 adjudication pursuant to subdivision (b).
- 12 (5) It has maintained a minimum coverage of local, national, or 13 international news and intelligence of a general character on at 14 least 25 percent of the space available on the homepage of the 15 Internet Web site of the newspaper.
- 16 (6) It provides a link to public notices published in the 17 newspaper on the homepage of the Internet Web site of the 18 newspaper that is readily accessible to any person visiting that 19 Internet Web site.
- 20 (b) For the purposes of Section 6020, a newspaper meeting the 21 criteria of this section that desires to have its standing as a
22 newspaper of general circulation ascertained and established, may,
23 by its publisher, manager, editor, or attorney, file a verified petition
24 in the superior court of the county in which it is established.
- 25 (c) For purposes of this section, “established” means in existence
26 under a specified name during the whole three-year period,
27 provided that a modification of name in accordance with Section
28 6024, which does not substantially change the identity of the 29 newspaper, shall not affect the status of the newspaper for the 30 purposes of this definition.
