An act to amend Section 11000 of the Government Code, relating to state government.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1934, as introduced, Buchanan. State government.

Existing law defines the term “state agency,” for the purposes of numerous statutes in the Government Code, to include every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and commission, except that, for these purposes, “state agency” does not include the California State University, with respect to specified statutes that are added or amended effective on or after January 1, 1997, unless a statute explicitly provides that it applies to the university.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to this provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 11000 of the Government Code is
2 amended to read:
3 11000. (a) As used in this title, the term “state agency” includes
4 every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and
5 commission. As used in any section of this title that is added or 6 amended effective on or after January 1, 1997, the term “state

1 agency” does not include the California State University, unless
2 the section explicitly provides that it applies to the university.
3 (b) References to particular state agencies in this title, without
4 further identification, such as to the “Treasurer” or “Department
5 of General Services,” are references to the state officer or agency
6 known by that name.
