An act to amend Section 297 of the Family Code, relating to family law.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 651, as amended, Leno. Family law: domestic partnerships.

Existing law provides that 2 unmarried, unrelated adults who have chosen to share one another's lives in an intimate and committed relationship of mutual caring may establish a domestic partnership by filing a declaration with the Secretary of State if certain requirements are met, including that both persons have a common residence.

This bill would eliminate the requirement that domestic partners have a common residence.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 297 of the Family Code is amended to
2 read:

1 297. (a) Domestic partners are two adults who have chosen
2 to share one another's lives in an intimate and committed
3 relationship of mutual caring.

4 (b) A domestic partnership shall be established in California
5 when both persons file a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with 6 the Secretary of State pursuant to this division, and, at the time of 7 filing, all of the following requirements are met:

8 (1) Neither person is married to someone else or is a member
9 of another domestic partnership with someone else that has not
10 been terminated, dissolved, or adjudged a nullity.

11 (2) The two persons are not related by blood in a way that would
12 prevent them from being married to each other in this state.

14 (4) Either of the following:

15 (A) Both persons are members of the same sex.

16 (B) One or both of the persons meet the eligibility criteria under
