An act to amend ~~Section 297~~ Sections 297 and 2320 of, and to add Sections 297.1 and 298.7 to, the Family Code, relating to family law.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 651, as amended, Leno. Family law: domestic partnerships.

Existing law provides that 2 unmarried, unrelated adults who have chosen to share one another's lives in an intimate and committed relationship of mutual caring may establish a domestic partnership by filing a declaration with the Secretary of State if certain requirements are met, including that both persons have a common residence and that both persons are at least 18 years of age. Existing law authorizes 2 unmarried persons, not minors, who have been living together as husband and wife to obtain a confidential marriage license, as specified.

This bill would eliminate the requirement that domestic partners have a common residence. This bill would also permit a person who is under 18 years of age who otherwise meets the requirements for establishing a domestic partnership to do so upon obtaining a court order that provides that authority to the underage person. The bill would also provide for the consent of the underage person's parent or guardian, except as specified, and would require that the court order and the written consent be filed with the court clerk and submitted to the Secretary of State with a Declaration of Domestic Partnership. The bill would also require the Secretary of State to establish a process by which 2 persons could enter into a confidential domestic partnership and maintain each confidential Declaration of Domestic Partnership, as specified, and permit the Secretary of State to charge a reasonable fee in this regard.

Existing law prohibits a judgment of dissolution of marriage from being entered unless one of the parties to the marriage has been a resident of this state for 6 months and of the county in which the proceeding is filed for 3 months before the filing of the petition.

This bill would authorize a judgment for dissolution, nullity, or legal separation of a marriage between persons of the same sex to be entered if the marriage was entered in California and neither party to the marriage resides in a jurisdiction that will dissolve the marriage.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 297 of the Family Code is amended to 2 read:
- 3 297. (a) Domestic partners are two adults who have chosen
4 to share one another's lives in an intimate and committed
5 relationship of mutual caring.
- 6 (b) A domestic partnership shall be established in California
7 when both persons file a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with 8 the Secretary of State pursuant to this division, and, at the time of 9 filing, all of the following requirements are met:
- 10 (1) Neither person is married to someone else or is a member
11 of another domestic partnership with someone else that has not 12 been terminated, dissolved, or adjudged a nullity.
- 13 (2) The two persons are not related by blood in a way that would 14 prevent them from being married to each other in this state.
- 15 (3) Both persons are at least 18 years of age, except as provided
16 in Section 297.1.
- 17 (4) Either of the following:

1 (A) Both persons are members of the same sex.

2 (B) One or both of the persons meet the eligibility criteria under
3 Title II of the Social Security Act as defined in Section 402(a) of
4 Title 42 of the United States Code for old-age insurance benefits
5 or Title XVI of the Social Security Act as defined in Section 1381
6 of Title 42 of the United States Code for aged individuals.
7 Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, persons of 8 opposite sexes may not constitute a domestic partnership unless
9 one or both of the persons are over 62 years of age.

10 (5) Both persons are capable of consenting to the domestic
11 partnership.

12 SEC. 2. Section 297.1 is added to the Family Code, to read:

13 297.1. (a) A person under 18 years of age who, together with 14 the person with whom he or she proposes to establish a domestic 15 partnership, otherwise meets the requirements for a domestic
16 partnership other than the requirement of being at least 18 years
17 of age, is capable of consenting to and establishing a domestic 18 partnership upon obtaining a court order granting permission to 19 the underage person or persons to establish a domestic partnership.

20 (b) (1) The court order and written consent of the parents of 21 each person under 18 years of age or of one of the parents or the
22 guardian of each person under 18 years of age, except as provided
23 in paragraph (2), shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and a
24 certified copy of the order shall be filed with the Secretary of State
25 with the Declaration of Domestic Partnership.

26 (2) If it appears to the satisfaction of the court by application
27 of a person under 18 years of age that the person requires a written 28 consent to establish a domestic partnership and that the minor has 29 no parent or guardian, or has no parent or guardian capable of 30 consenting, the court may make an order consenting to establishing
31 the domestic partnership. The order shall be filed with the clerk
32 of the court and a certified copy of the order shall be filed with the 33 Secretary of State with the Declaration of Domestic Partnership.

34 SEC. 3. Section 298.7 is added to the Family Code, to read:

35 298.7. The Secretary of State shall establish a process by which 36 two persons, who have been living together as domestic partners
37 and who meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive,
38 of subdivision (b) of Section 297, may enter into a confidential
39 domestic partnership. This process shall do all of the following:

1 (a) Maintain each confidential Declaration of Domestic
2 Partnership as a permanent record that is not open to public
3 inspection except upon order of the court issued upon a showing
4 of good cause.

5 (b) Authorize the Secretary of State to charge a reasonable fee
6 to offset costs directly connected with maintaining confidentiality
7 of a Declaration of Domestic Partnership.

8 SEC. 4. Section 2320 of the Family Code is amended to read:
