An act relating to human trafficking.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1133, as introduced, Leno. Human trafficking.

Existing law makes it a felony, generally known as human trafficking, to deprive or violate the personal liberty of another with the intent to effect or maintain a felony violation of, among other crimes, pimping, pandering, and abducting a minor for the purpose of prostitution.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would revise the human trafficking laws to enhance the state's ability to prosecute people who engage in human trafficking.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation that would revise the human trafficking laws to enhance
- 3 the state's ability to prosecute people who engage in human
- 4 trafficking.
