[Approved by Governor September 29, 2012. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 2012.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1527, Negrete McLeod. Board of Behavioral Sciences: licensing.

(1) Existing law, the Marriage and Family Therapist Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of marriage and family therapists by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Existing law also authorizes the board to issue a license to a person who holds a license from another jurisdiction under certain conditions, including a requirement for the person to pass the examinations otherwise required of an applicant.

This bill would require the licensee from another jurisdiction to be in good standing. The bill would require the person from another jurisdiction to pass the California law and ethics examination, but would exempt the person from the clinical examination if the person has previously obtained a passing score on an examination accepted by the board, as provided by a regulation adopted by the board. The bill would, commencing January 1, 2014, provide that a passing score on the clinical examination shall be accepted by the board for a period of 7 years after the examination date.

(2) Existing law, the Clinical Social Worker Practice Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of social workers by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Existing law requires the board to issue a clinical social worker license to each applicant from another state who satisfies specified educational and other requirements and successfully passes examinations administered by the board.

This bill would commencing January 1, 2014, exempt an applicant licensed by another jurisdiction from the clinical examination if the person has previously obtained a passing score on an examination accepted by the board, pursuant to a regulation adopted by the board. The bill would, commencing January 1, 2014, provide that a passing score on the clinical examination shall be accepted by the board for a period of 7 years after the examination date. The bill would add the requirement that, commencing January 1, 2014, in order for the board to issue a clinical social worker license to an applicant licensed by another state or with experience gained in another state, the applicant shall also complete an 18-hour course in California law and professional ethics, as specified. The bill would repeal related provisions made obsolete by the repeal of Section 4996.1 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 4 of AB 2167 of the 2009–10 Regular Session.

Existing law requires a person who wishes to be credited with experience toward license requirements to register with the board as an associate clinical social worker. Existing law requires an applicant for registration to satisfy certain requirements.

This bill would, commencing January 1, 2014, add the requirement for completion of training or coursework, which may be embedded in more than one course, in California law and professional ethics, as specified.

(3) Existing law, the Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of professional clinical counselors by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Existing law, until January 1, 2013, requires every applicant for a license as a professional clinical counselor to be examined by the board and requires the board to evaluate various national licensing examinations and other examinations, as necessary, for use as requirements for licensure. Existing law authorizes the board to issue a license to a person who holds a license from another jurisdiction under certain conditions, including a requirement for the person to pass the examinations otherwise required of an applicant.

This bill would extend those examination evaluation provisions to January 1, 2014, and would additionally specify that, whichever examination the board decides to require for licensure, a passing score on such examination shall be accepted by the board for a period of 7 years from the date the examination was taken. The bill would exempt a person with a license from another jurisdiction from a specified examination if the person has previously obtained a passing score on an examination that is currently required by the board. The bill would, commencing January 1, 2014, provide that a passing score on the clinical examination, as described below, shall be accepted by the board for a period of 7 years after the examination date.

(4) Commencing January 1, 2013, existing law for the practice areas of marriage and family therapy, social work, and professional clinical counselors, requires applicants for a license to pass a clinical examination and a California law and ethics examination, subject to specified fees.

This bill would instead make those examination requirements operative on January 1, 2014.

This bill would incorporate additional changes to certain provisions proposed by SB 1575 if that bill is also enacted and this bill is chaptered last.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4980.50 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 387 of the Statutes of 2011, is amended to read:

The examinations shall be as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 4980.40. The board shall examine the candidate with regard to his or her knowledge and professional skills and his or her judgment in the utilization of appropriate techniques and methods.

(b) The board shall not deny any applicant, who has submitted a complete application for examination, admission to the licensure examinations required by this section if the applicant meets the educational and experience requirements of this chapter, and has not committed any acts or engaged in any conduct that would constitute grounds to deny licensure.

(c) The board shall not deny any applicant, whose application for licensure is complete, admission to the standard written examination, nor shall the board postpone or delay any applicant's standard written examination or delay informing the candidate of the results of the standard written examination, solely upon the receipt by the board of a complaint alleging acts or conduct that would constitute grounds to deny licensure.

(d) If an applicant for examination who has passed the standard written examination is the subject of a complaint or is under board investigation for acts or conduct that, if proven to be true, would constitute grounds for the board to deny licensure, the board shall permit the applicant to take the clinical vignette written examination for licensure, but may withhold the results of the examination or notify the applicant that licensure will not be granted pending completion of the investigation.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 135, the board may deny any applicant who has previously failed either the standard written or clinical vignette written examination permission to retake either examination pending completion of the investigation of any complaints against the applicant. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the board from denying an applicant admission to any examination, withholding the results, or refusing to issue a license to any applicant when an accusation or statement of issues has been filed against the applicant pursuant to Sections 11503 and 11504 of the Government Code, respectively, or the applicant has been denied in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 485.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may destroy all examination materials two years following the date of an examination.

(g) On or after January 1, 2002, no applicant shall be eligible to participate in a clinical vignette written examination if his or her passing score on the standard written examination occurred more than seven years before.

(h) An applicant who has qualified pursuant to this chapter shall be issued a license as a marriage and family therapist in the form that the board may deem appropriate.

(e) If an applicant for the examination specified by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4999.53, who has passed the California law and ethics examination, is the subject of a complaint or is under board investigation for acts or conduct that, if proven to be true, would constitute grounds for the board to deny licensure, the board shall permit the applicant to take this examination, but may notify the applicant that licensure will not be granted pending completion of the investigation.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 135, the board may deny any applicant who has previously failed either the California law and ethics examination, or the examination specified by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4999.53, permission to retake either examination pending completion of the investigation of any complaints against the applicant.

(g) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the board from denying an applicant admission to any examination, withholding the results, or refusing to issue a license to any applicant when an accusation or statement of issues has been filed against the applicant pursuant to Section 11503 or 11504 of the Government Code, respectively, or the application has been denied in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 485.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may destroy all examination materials two years following the date of an examination.

If the applicant fails to obtain a passing score within seven years of initial attempt, he or she shall obtain a passing score on the current version of the California law and ethics examination in order to be eligible to retake this examination.
