AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 10, 2013

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2013–14 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 218

An act to add Section 432.9 to the Labor Code, relating to employment.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 218, as amended, Dickinson. Employment applications: criminal history.

Existing law prohibits both public and private employers from asking an applicant for employment to disclose, either in writing or verbally, any information concerning an arrest or detention that did not result in a conviction.

This bill would, commencing July 1, 2014, prohibit a state or local agency from asking an applicant to disclose information regarding a criminal conviction, except as specified, until the agency has determined the applicant meets the minimum employment qualifications for the position. ~~This~~ The bill would include specified findings and declarations of the Legislature in support of this policy.

Because this bill would impose new requirements on local agencies relative to employment application procedures, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that reducing
2 barriers to employment for people who have previously offended,
3 and decreasing unemployment in communities with concentrated
4 numbers of people who have previously offended, are matters of
5 statewide concern. Therefore, this act shall apply to state agencies,
6 all cities and counties, including charter cities and charter counties,
7 and special districts. The Legislature further finds and declares
8 that, consistent with the 2011 Realignment Legislation addressing
9 public safety, increasing employment opportunities for people who
10 have previously offended will reduce recidivism and improve
11 economic stability in our communities.

12 SEC. 2. Section 432.9 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

13 432.9. (a) A state or local agency shall not ask an applicant
14 for employment to disclose, orally or in writing, information
15 concerning the conviction history of the applicant, including any
16 inquiry about conviction history on any employment application,
17 until the agency has determined the applicant meets the minimum
18 employment qualifications, as stated in any notice issued for the 19 position.

20 (b) This section shall not apply to a position for which a state
21 or local agency is otherwise required by law to conduct a
22 conviction history background check, to any position within a
23 criminal justice agency, as that term is defined in Section 13101
24 of the Penal Code, or to any individual working on a temporary
25 or permanent basis for a criminal justice agency on a contract basis
26 or on loan from another governmental entity.

27 (c) This section shall not be construed to prevent a state or local
28 agency from conducting a conviction history background check
29 after complying with all of the provisions of subdivision (a).

1 (d) As used in this section, “state agency” means any state office,
2 officer, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or 3 agency.

4 (e) As used in this section, “local agency” means any county,
5 city, city and county, including a charter city or county, or any
6 special district.

7 (f) Section 433 does not apply to this section.

8 (g) This section shall become operative on July 1, 2014.

9 SEC. 3. If the Commission on State Mandates determines that 10 this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to 11 local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made
12 pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division
13 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
