CHAPTER _____

An act to amend Section 3081 of the Penal Code, relating to county parole.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 884, Bonilla. County Board of Parole Commissioners: parole terms.

Existing law establishes a board of parole commissioners in each county, and requires the board to consider applications for parole from locally incarcerated inmates. Existing law allows a county board to release a prisoner on parole for a term not to exceed 2 years, with supervision and under conditions as may seem fit and proper for the prisoner's rehabilitation.

This bill would instead allow a county board to release a prisoner on parole for a term not to exceed 3 years.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3081 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3081. (a) Each county board may retake and imprison any prisoner upon parole granted under the provisions of this article.

(b) Each county board may release any prisoner on parole for a term not to exceed three years upon those conditions and under those rules and regulations as may seem fit and proper for his or her rehabilitation, and should the prisoner so paroled violate any of the conditions of his or her parole or any of the rules and regulations governing his or her parole, he or she shall, upon order of the parole commission, be returned to the jail from which he or she was paroled and be confined therein for the unserved portion of his or her sentence.

(c) The written order of each county board shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named therein to authorize them, or any of them, to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner. All chiefs of police, marshals of cities, sheriffs, and all other police and peace officers of this state shall execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process.

(d) In computing the unserved sentence of a person returned to jail because of the revocation of his or her parole no credit shall be granted for the time between his or her release from jail on parole and his or her return to jail because of the revocation of his or her parole.
