AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY MARCH 10, 2014
CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2013–14 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1562

Introduced by Assembly Member Gomez

January 29, 2014

An act to amend Section 12945.2 of the Government Code, relating to employment.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1562, as amended, Gomez. Employment: leave.

The Moore-Brown-Roberti Family Rights Act makes it an unlawful employment practice for an employer, as defined, to refuse to grant a request by an eligible employee to take up to 12 workweeks of unpaid protected leave during any 12-month period (1) to bond with a child who was born to, adopted by, or placed for foster care with, the employee, (2) to care for the employee's parent, spouse, or child who has a serious health condition, as defined, or (3) because the employee is suffering from a serious health condition rendering him or her unable to perform the functions of the job. Under the act, an employee is required to have more than 12 months of service with the employer and at least 1,250 hours of service with the employer during the previous 12-month period.

The act authorizes an employer to refuse to reinstate an employee returning from leave under specified circumstances.

This bill, with respect to a public or private school employee, ~~instead of requiring~~ would require either 1,250 hours of service with the employer during the previous 12-month period, ~~would require during~~ that period or service during that period of at least 60% of the hours that an employee who is employed ~~fulltime~~ full time is required to perform in a school year.

The bill would exempt public and private school employees from that reinstatement exception.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 12945.2 of the Government Code is 2 amended to read:

3 12945.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), it is an 4 unlawful employment practice for an employer to refuse to grant 5 a request by an eligible employee to take up to a total of 12 6 workweeks in any 12-month period for family care and medical 7 leave. Family care and medical leave requested pursuant to this 8 subdivision shall not be deemed to have been granted unless the 9 employer provides the employee, upon granting the leave request, 10 a guarantee of employment in the same or a comparable position
11 upon the termination of the leave. The commission shall adopt a 12 regulation specifying the elements of a reasonable request.

13 (b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), it is not an unlawful 14 employment practice for an employer to refuse to grant a request 15 for family care and medical leave by an employee if the employer 16 employs fewer than 50 employees within 75 miles of the worksite 17 where that employee is employed.

18 (c) For purposes of this section:

19 (1) "Child" means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a

2 months of service with the employer, and who complies with one

5 1,250 hours of service with the employer during the previous 6 12-month period.

7 (B) ~~With respect to~~ Is a public or private school ~~employee,~~ 10 is employed full time is required to perform in a school year.

11 (4) “Family care and medical leave” means any of the following:

12 (A) Leave for reason of the birth of a child of the employee, the 13 placement of a child with an employee in connection with the 14 adoption or foster care of the child by the employee, or the serious 15 health condition of a child of the employee.

16 (B) Leave to care for a parent or a spouse who has a serious 17 health condition.

18 (C) Leave because of an employee’s own serious health 19 condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions 20 of the position of that employee, except for leave taken for 21 disability on account of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical 22 conditions.

23 (5) “Employment in the same or a comparable position” means 24 employment in a position that has the same or similar duties and 25 pay that can be performed at the same or similar geographic 26 location as the position held prior to the leave.

27 (6) “FMLA” means the federal Family and Medical Leave Act
28 of 1993 (~~P.L. 103-3~~) (Public Law 103-3).

34 pursuant to Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 2099.5) of 35 Chapter 5 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, or 36 an individual duly licensed as a physician, surgeon, or osteopathic 37 physician or surgeon in another state or jurisdiction, who directly 38 treats or supervises the treatment of the serious health condition.

1 (B) Any other person determined by the United States Secretary 2 of Labor to be capable of providing health care services under the 3 FMLA.

4 (8) "Parent" means a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, a 5 stepparent, a legal guardian, or other person who stood in loco 6 parentis to the employee when the employee was a child.

7 (9) "Serious health condition" means an illness, injury,

9 of the following:

10 (A) Inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential health 11 care facility.

12 (B) Continuing treatment or continuing supervision by a health 13 care provider.

14 (d) An employer shall not be required to pay an employee for 15 any leave taken pursuant to subdivision (a), except as required by 16 subdivision (e).

17 (e) An employee taking a leave permitted by subdivision (a) 18 may elect, or an employer may require the employee, to substitute, 19 for leave allowed under subdivision (a), any of the employee's 20 accrued vacation leave or other accrued time off during this period 21 or any other paid or unpaid time off negotiated with the employer.
22 If an employee takes a leave because of the employee's own serious 23 health condition, the employee may also elect, or the employer 24 may also require the employee, to substitute accrued sick leave 25 during the period of the leave. However, an employee shall not 26 use sick leave during a period of leave in connection with the birth, 27 adoption, or foster care of a child, or to care for a child, parent, or 28 spouse with a serious health condition, unless mutually agreed to 29 by the employer and the employee.

30 (f) (1) During any period that an eligible employee takes leave 31 pursuant to subdivision (a) or takes leave that qualifies as leave 32 taken under the FMLA, the employer shall maintain and pay for 33 coverage under a "group health plan," as defined in Section 34 5000(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, for the duration of the 35 leave, not to exceed 12 workweeks in a 12-month period, 36 commencing on the date leave taken under the FMLA commences, 37 at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been 38 provided if the employee had continued in employment 39 continuously for the duration of the leave. Nothing in the preceding 40 sentence shall preclude an employer from maintaining and paying

1 for coverage under a “group health plan” beyond 12 workweeks.
2 An employer may recover the premium that the employer paid as 3 required by this subdivision for maintaining coverage for the 4 employee under the group health plan if both of the following 5 conditions occur:

6 (A) The employee fails to return from leave after the period of 7 leave for which the employee is eligible has expired.

8 (B) The employee’s failure to return from leave is for a reason 9 other than the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health 10 condition that entitles the employee to leave under subdivision (a) 11 or other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

12 (2) (A) Any employee taking leave pursuant to subdivision (a) 13 shall continue to be eligible to participate in employee health plans 14 for any period during which coverage is not provided by the 15 employer under paragraph (1), employee benefit plans, including 16 life insurance or short-term or long-term disability or accident 17 insurance, pension and retirement plans, and supplemental 18 unemployment benefit plans to the same extent and under the same 19 conditions as apply to an unpaid leave taken for any purpose other 20 than those described in subdivision (a). In the absence of these 21 conditions an employee shall continue to be eligible to participate 22 in these plans and, in the case of health and welfare employee 23 benefit plans, including life insurance or short-term or long-term 24 disability or accident insurance, or other similar plans, the employer 25 may, at his or her discretion, require the employee to pay 26 premiums, at the group rate, during the period of leave not covered 27 by any accrued vacation leave, or other accrued time off, or any 28 other paid or unpaid time off negotiated with the employer, as a 29 condition of continued coverage during the leave period. However, 30 the nonpayment of premiums by an employee shall not constitute 31 a break in service, for purposes of longevity, seniority under any 32 collective bargaining agreement, or any employee benefit plan.

33 (B) For purposes of pension and retirement plans, an employer
34 shall not be required to make plan payments for an employee 35 during the leave period, and the leave period shall not be required 36 to be counted for purposes of time accrued under the plan.
37 However, an employee covered by a pension plan may continue 38 to make contributions in accordance with the terms of the plan 39 during the period of the leave.

1 (g) During a family care and medical leave period, the employee 2 shall retain employee status with the employer, and the leave shall 3 not constitute a break in service, for purposes of longevity, seniority 4 under any collective bargaining agreement, or any employee benefit 5 plan. An employee returning from leave shall return with no less 6 seniority than the employee had when the leave commenced, for 7 purposes of layoff, recall, promotion, job assignment, and 8 seniority-related benefits such as vacation.

9 (h) If the employee's need for a leave pursuant to this section 10 is foreseeable, the employee shall provide the employer with 11 reasonable advance notice of the need for the leave.

12 (i) If the employee's need for leave pursuant to this section is 13 foreseeable due to a planned medical treatment or supervision, the 14 employee shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment 15 or supervision to avoid disruption to the operations of the employer, 16 subject to the approval of the health care provider of the individual 17 requiring the treatment or supervision.

18 (j) (1) An employer may require that an employee's request 19 for leave to care for a child, a spouse, or a parent who has a serious 20 health condition be supported by a certification issued by the health 21 care provider of the individual requiring care. That certification 22 shall be sufficient if it includes all of the following:

23 (A) The date on which the serious health condition commenced.

24 (B) The probable duration of the condition.

25 (C) An estimate of the amount of time that the health care 26 provider believes the employee needs to care for the individual 27 requiring the care.

28 (D) A statement that the serious health condition warrants the 29 participation of a family member to provide care during a period 30 of the treatment or supervision of the individual requiring care.

31 (2) Upon expiration of the time estimated by the health care 32 provider in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1), the employer may 33 require the employee to obtain recertification, in accordance with 34 the procedure provided in paragraph (1), if additional leave is 35 required.

36 (k) (1) An employer may require that an employee's request
37 for leave because of the employee's own serious health condition 38 be supported by a certification issued by his or her health care 39 provider. That certification shall be sufficient if it includes all of 40 the following:

1 (A) The date on which the serious health condition commenced.

2 (B) The probable duration of the condition.

3 (C) A statement that, due to the serious health condition, the 4 employee is unable to perform the function of his or her position.

5 (2) The employer may require that the employee obtain 6 subsequent recertification regarding the employee's serious health 7 condition on a reasonable basis, in accordance with the procedure 8 provided in paragraph (1), if additional leave is required.

9 (3) (A) In any case in which the employer has reason to doubt 10 the validity of the certification provided pursuant to this section, 11 the employer may require, at the employer's expense, that the 12 employee obtain the opinion of a second health care provider, 13 designated or approved by the employer, concerning any 14 information certified under paragraph (1).

15 (B) The health care provider designated or approved under 16 subparagraph (A) shall not be employed on a regular basis by the 17 employer.

18 (C) In any case in which the second opinion described in 19 subparagraph (A) differs from the opinion in the original 20 certification, the employer may require, at the employer's expense, 21 that the employee obtain the opinion of a third health care provider, 22 designated or approved jointly by the employer and the employee, 23 concerning the information certified under paragraph (1).

24 (D) The opinion of the third health care provider concerning 25 the information certified under paragraph (1) shall be considered 26 to be final and shall be binding on the employer and the employee.

27 (4) As a condition of an employee's return from leave taken 28 because of the employee's own serious health condition, the 29 employer may have a uniformly applied practice or policy that 30 requires the employee to obtain certification from his or her health 31 care provider that the employee is able to resume work. Nothing 32 in this paragraph shall supersede a valid collective bargaining 33 agreement that governs the return to work of that employee.

34 (I) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to 35 refuse to hire, or to discharge, fine, suspend, expel, or discriminate 36 against, any individual because of any of the following:

37 (1) An individual's exercise of the right to family care and 38 medical leave provided by subdivision (a).

39 (2) An individual's giving information or testimony as to his or 40 her own family care and medical leave, or another person's family

1 care and medical leave, in any inquiry or proceeding related to 2 rights guaranteed under this section.

3 (m) This section shall not be construed to require any changes 4 in existing collective bargaining agreements during the life of the 5 contract, or until January 1, 1993, whichever occurs first.

6 (n) The amendments made to this section by Chapter 827 of the 7 Statutes of 1993 shall not be construed to require any changes in 8 existing collective bargaining agreements during the life of the 9 contract, or until February 5, 1994, whichever occurs first.

10 (o) This section shall be construed as separate and distinct from 11 Section 12945.

12 (p) Leave provided for pursuant to this section may be taken in 13 one or more periods. The 12-month period during which 12 14 workweeks of leave may be taken under this section shall run 15 concurrently with the 12-month period under the FMLA, and shall 16 commence the date leave taken under the FMLA commences.

17 (q) In any case in which both parents eligible for leave under 18 subdivision (a) are employed by the same employer, the employer 19 shall not be required to grant leave in connection with the birth, 20 adoption, or foster care of a child that would allow the parents 21 family care and medical leave totaling more than the amount 22 specified in subdivision (a).

23 (r) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an employer may refuse 24 to reinstate an employee returning from leave to the same or a 25 comparable position if all of the following apply:

26 (A) The employee is a salaried employee who is among the 27 highest paid 10 percent of the employer's employees who are 28 employed within 75 miles of the worksite at which that employee 29 is employed.

30 (B) The refusal is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous 31 economic injury to the operations of the employer.

32 (C) The employer notifies the employee of the intent to refuse 33 reinstatement at the time the employer determines the refusal is 34 necessary under subparagraph (B).

35 (2) In any case in which the leave has already commenced, the 36 employer shall give the employee a reasonable opportunity to 37 return to work following the notice prescribed by subparagraph 38 (C).

39 (3) This subdivision does not apply to public or private school 40 employees.

1 (s) Leave taken by an employee pursuant to this section shall 2 run concurrently with leave taken pursuant to the FMLA, except 3 for any leave taken under the FMLA for disability on account of 4 pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. The aggregate 5 amount of leave taken under this section or the FMLA, or both, 6 except for leave taken for disability on account of pregnancy,
7 childbirth, or related medical conditions, shall not exceed 12 8 workweeks in a 12-month period. An employee may take, in 9 addition to the leave provided for under this section and the FMLA, 10 the leave provided for in Section 12945, if the employee is 11 otherwise qualified for that leave.

12 (t) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to 13 interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to 14 exercise, any right provided under this section.
