

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 2, 2014

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2013–14 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1982

Introduced by Assembly Member Ting

February 19, 2014

An act to amend Section 1109 of the Evidence Code, and to amend Section 646.9 of the Penal Code, relating to stalking.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1982, as amended, Ting. Stalking.

Under existing law, any person who willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follows or willfully and maliciously harasses another person and who makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear for his or her safety, or the safety of his or her immediate family, is guilty of the crime of stalking, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. Existing law provides that a person who violates these provisions after having been convicted of certain other crimes is subject to additional punishment, as specified.

This bill would instead provide that a person is guilty of the crime of stalking when that person willfully engages in a course of conduct, as defined, directed at a specific person or group of persons and knows or should have known that the course of conduct would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her immediate family, ~~or to suffer substantial emotional distress, as defined. The bill would include additional crimes for which a person is subject to additional punishment if that person violates these provisions after having been convicted of those crimes. The bill would also require a~~ person who violates these provisions by engaging in a course of conduct directed at a person who was a minor at the time during the course of that conduct to be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 2, 3, or 5 years. For those purposes, the bill would include in the definition of “immediate family” a domesticated pet. By changing the definition of a crime, ~~this~~ the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

Under existing law, evidence of a person’s character or a trait of his or her character is inadmissible when offered to prove his or her conduct on a particular occasion, except as specified. Existing law provides, however, that when a defendant is accused of an offense involving domestic violence in a criminal action, evidence of the defendant’s commission of other domestic violence may be admitted to prove the defendant’s conduct, except when the court exercises its discretion to exclude the evidence of prior acts, as specified.

This bill would provide that when a defendant is accused of an offense involving stalking in a criminal action, evidence of the defendant’s prior acts of stalking may be admitted to prove the defendant’s conduct, except as specified.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

21 SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to 22 Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because

26 for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of 27 the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within
28 the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California
29 Constitution.
