

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2493

Introduced by Assembly Member Bloom

February 21, 2014

An act to amend Section 120110 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to public health.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2493, as introduced, Bloom. Communicable disease prevention and control

Existing law establishes the State Department of Public Health and sets forth its powers and duties, including, but not limited to, the licensing and regulation of health facilities, and the prevention and control of communicable diseases, including tuberculosis.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to those provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 120110 of the Health and Safety Code
2 is amended to read:
3 120110. As used in the Communicable Disease Prevention and
4 Control Act—(~~Section 27~~) (Section 27), a person has “active
5 tuberculosis disease” when either one of the following occur:
6 (a) A smear or culture taken from any source in the person’s
7 body has tested positive for tuberculosis, and the person has not

- 1 completed the appropriate prescribed course of medication for
- 2 active tuberculosis disease.
- 3 (b) There is radiographic, current clinical, or laboratory evidence
- 4 sufficient to support a medical diagnosis of tuberculosis for which
- 5 treatment is indicated.
