

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 47

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 72

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 47—Relative to Philippine Independence Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 2013.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 47, Corbett. Philippine Independence Day.

This measure would recognize June 12, 2013, as the 115th Anniversary of Philippine Independence, and would call upon the people of the state to observe the month of June with appropriate ceremonies, programs, and activities.

WHEREAS, On June 12, 2013, the Filipino American community will celebrate the 115th Anniversary of Philippine Independence, and on this occasion it is appropriate to make special recognition of California's Filipino American citizens and thank them for their countless contributions to our nation's cultural, economic, and political heritage; and

WHEREAS, The Philippine Declaration of Independence took place on June 12, 1898, in the town of Cavite el Viejo (now known as Kawit) in the province of Cavite in the Philippines when Filipino revolutionary forces under the leadership of General Emilio Aguinaldo publicly read the Act of Declaration of Independence proclaiming the sovereignty and independence of the Philippine Islands from the colonial rule of Spain, after United States and Filipino revolutionary forces defeated Spain at the Battle of Manila Bay during the Spanish-American War; and

WHEREAS, The declaration was not recognized by the United States or Spain. Spain later ceded the Philippines to the United States in the 1898 Treaty of Paris that ended the Spanish-American War. The United States government did not recognize Philippine Independence until the signing of the Treaty of Manila on July 4, 1946; and

WHEREAS, For nearly two decades, July 4 was observed in the Philippines as Independence Day until President Diosdado Macapagal, upon the advice of historians and the urging of nationalists, signed the Republic Act No. 4166 into law on August 4, 1964, designating the country's Independence Day as June 12. June 12 had previously been observed as Flag Day and on that day many government buildings had been urged to display the Philippine flag in their offices; and

WHEREAS, As the years went on, Filipino Americans became very involved in the community and made numerous contributions in all aspects of American society and culture, especially in California; and

WHEREAS, Filipino Americans have also played a major role in California politics. There have been city mayors and other public officials who have shaped the development of California over the years who have been of Filipino descent; including, Tita Alice Bulos, also known as the Godmother of Filipino American politics, our very own Chief Justice of California Tani Cantil-Sakauye, Mona Pasquil, former acting Lieutenant Governor of California, the Mayor of Milpitas Jose Esteves, Union City Council Members Jim Navarro and Pat Gacoscas, Daly City Vice Mayor Ray Buenaventura, Daly City Council Member Mike Guingona, and Alameda Vice Mayor Rob Bonta; and

WHEREAS, Many people of Filipino descent have contributed to great movements that have helped to shape our country and its role in the world, including the late Larry Dulay Itliong, labor organizer and the first vice president of the United Farm Workers Union; and the late Philip Vera Cruz, cofounder of the United Farm Workers Union; and

WHEREAS, Many Filipino Americans have served with distinction as outstanding soldiers who fought as members of the United States Armed Forces for over a century and have sacrificed their lives in many wars, including World War II; and

WHEREAS, Today there are 3.4 million people of Filipino American descent, many of whom have played vital roles in the development of the United States and have paved the way for many Filipino Americans to continue to strengthen their roles in the broader society, and to contribute to American and California politics, economy, and culture; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature, in honor of the multitude of contributions that Filipino Americans have made to make this a better county and state for all people, recognizes June 12, 2013, as the 115th Anniversary of Philippine Independence and calls upon the people of the state to observe the month of June with appropriate ceremonies, programs, and activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
