Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 6—Relative to Black History Month.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 6, as amended, Jones-Sawyer. Black History Month.

This measure would recognize February 2015 as Black History Month, urge all citizens to join in celebrating the accomplishments of African Americans during Black History Month, and encourage the people of California to recognize the many talents, achievements, and contributions that African Americans make to their communities.

Fiscal committee: no.

WHEREAS, Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson, distinguished African American author, editor, publisher, and historian, who is known as the “Father of Black History,” founded Negro History Week in 1926, which became Black History Month in 1976, intended to encourage further research and publishing regarding the untold stories of African American heritage; and

WHEREAS, The history of African Americans here in the United States, as well as throughout the ages, is indeed unique and vibrant, and it is appropriate to celebrate this history during the month of February 2015, which has been proclaimed as Black History Month; and

WHEREAS, There is even greater cause for a reverent celebration in 2015 as Americans reflect on the significance of the 50th anniversary of the Voting Rights Act, and the 50th anniversary of the Selma to Montgomery Marches or “Bloody Sunday”; and

WHEREAS, The history of the United States is rich with inspirational stories of great men and noble women whose actions, words, and achievements have united Americans and contributed to the success and prosperity of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The slave trade was a tragic episode in African history and began before August 1619 when the first slaves arrived in Jamestown, Virginia. During the course of the slave trade, an estimated 50 million African men, women, and children were lost to their native continent, though only about 15 million arrived safely to a new home. The others lost their lives on African soil or along the Guinea coast, or finally in holds on the ships during the dreaded Middle Passage across the Atlantic Ocean; and

WHEREAS, The first American to shed blood in the revolution that freed America from British rule was Crispus Attucks (March 5, 1770, Boston Massacre), an African American seaman and slave. African Americans also fought in wars including the Battles of Lexington and Concord in April 1775, the Battle of Rhode Island on August 29, 1775, 1778, the battles of Ticonderoga, White Plains, Bennington, Brandywine, Saratoga, Savannah, Yorktown, Bunker Hill, and other revolutionary war battles; the War of 1812, including the Battle of New Orleans; the Civil War, the Spanish-American War; World Wars I and II, Korea, and the Vietnam War; and

1 WHEREAS, In spite of the African slave trade, many Africans
2 and African Americans continued to move forward in society;
3 during the Reconstruction period, two African Americans served 4 in the United States Senate and 14 sat in the House of 5 Representatives; and

6 WHEREAS, From the earliest days of the United States, the 7 course of its history has been greatly influenced by Black heroes
8 and pioneers in many diverse areas, from science, medicine, 9 business, and education to government, industry, and social 10 leadership; and

11 WHEREAS, Africans and African Americans have also been 12 great inventors, inventing and improving things such as the 13 air-conditioning unit, almanac, automatic gearshift, blood plasma
14 bag, clothes dryer, doorknob, doorstop, electric lamp bulb, elevator, 15 fire escape ladder, fountain pen, gas mask, golf tee, horseshoe,
16 lantern, lawnmower, lawn sprinkler, lock, lubricating cup,
17 refrigerating apparatus, spark plug, stethoscope, telephone 18 transmitter, thermostat control, traffic signal, and typewriter; and

19 WHEREAS, A number of these brave and accomplished
20 individuals, such as Booker T. Washington, George Washington
21 Carver, ~~Matthew Hansen~~, Henson, Daniel Hale Williams, Dr.
22 Charles Drew, Jackie Robinson, Jesse Owens, Curt Flood, Medgar
23 Evers, and, of course, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., are noted 24 prominently in the history books of students nationwide, thus 25 enabling them to learn about the important and lasting contributions 26 of these individuals; and

27 WHEREAS, Among those Americans who have enriched our 28 society are the members of the African American 29 community—individuals who have been steadfast in their 30 commitment to promoting brotherhood, equality, and justice for 31 all; now, therefore, be it

32 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate
33 thereof concurring, That the Legislature takes great pleasure in 34 recognizing February 2015 as Black History Month, urges all 35 citizens to join in celebrating the accomplishments of African 36 Americans during Black History Month, and encourages the people 37 of California to recognize the many talents, achievements, and 38 contributions that African Americans make to their communities;
39 and be it further

1     Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies
2 of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
