CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2015–16 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 83

Introduced by Assembly Member Gatto

January 6, 2015

An act to amend Section 1798.81.5 of the Civil Code, relating to personal data.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 83, as amended, Gatto. Information Practices Act of 1977.

Existing law requires a person or business that owns, licenses, or maintains personal information about a California resident to implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the information, to protect the personal information from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure.

This bill would define “reasonable security procedures and practices” for purposes of these provisions as requiring, at a minimum, security of personal information, including geophysical location information and biometric information, to the degree that any reasonably prudent business would provide, as specified.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1798.81.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.81.5. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that personal information about California residents is protected. To that end, the purpose of this section is to encourage businesses that own, license, or maintain personal information about Californians to provide reasonable security for that information.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the terms “own” and “license” include personal information that a business retains as part of the business’ internal customer account or for the purpose of using that information in transactions with the person to whom the information relates. The term “maintain” includes personal information that a business maintains but does not own or license.

(b) A business that owns, licenses, or maintains personal information about a California resident shall implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the information, to protect the personal information from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure.

(c) A business that discloses personal information about a California resident pursuant to a contract with a nonaffiliated third party that is not subject to subdivision (b) shall require by contract that the third party implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the information, to protect the personal information from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure.

(d) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) “Personal information” means ~~an~~ either of the following:

(A) An individual’s first name or first initial and his or her last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements, when either the name or the data elements are not encrypted or redacted:

~~(A)~~
(i) ~~Social security number, number, tax identification number, passport number, or any other unique government-issued identification number.~~

~~(B)~~

1 (ii) Driver's license number or California identification card
2 number.

3 ~~(C)~~

4 (iii) Account number, credit or debit card number, in
5 combination with any required security code, access code, or
6 password that would permit access to an individual's financial
7 account.

8 ~~(D)~~

9 (iv) Medical information.

10 ~~(E)~~

11 (v) Geophysical location information.

12 (vi) Biometric information.

13 (vii) Signature.

14 (B) Username or email address in combination with a password
15 or security question and answer that would permit access to an
16 online account.

17 (2) "Geophysical location information" means any personally
18 identifiable information describing or concerning the duration of 19 a transportation service provided to an individual, the location and 20 route of a transportation service provided to an individual, or, if
21 applicable, the monetary exchange associated with a transportation
22 service provided to an individual. location data generated to assess
23 the past or current location of, or travel by, an individual,
24 including, but not limited to, geographic coordinates, street
25 address, or WiFi positioning system.

26 (3) "Biometric information" means data generated by automatic
27 measurements of an individual's biological characteristics that
28 are used by the owner or licensee to authenticate an individual's 29 identity, such as a fingerprint, voice print, eye retinas or irises, or 30 other unique biological characteristic.

31 ~~(3)~~

32 (4) "Medical information" means any individually identifiable
33 information, in electronic or physical form, regarding the 34 individual's medical history or medical treatment or diagnosis by 35 a health care professional.

36 (5) "Health insurance information" means an individual's 37 insurance policy number or subscribed identification number, any 38 unique identifier used by a health insurer to identify the individual,
39 or any information in an individual's application and claims
40 history, including any appeals records.

1 ~~(4)~~

2 (6) “Personal information” does not include publicly available
3 information that is lawfully made available to the general public
4 from federal, state, or local government records.

5 (e) The provisions of this section do not apply to any of the 6 following:

7 (1) A provider of health care, health care service plan, or
8 contractor regulated by the Confidentiality of Medical Information
9 Act (Part 2.6 (commencing with Section 56) of Division 1).

10 (2) A financial institution as defined in Section 4052 of the 11 Financial Code and subject to the California Financial Information
12 Privacy Act (Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 4050) of the 13 Financial Code).

14 (3) A covered entity governed by the medical privacy and
15 security rules issued by the federal Department of Health and 16 Human Services, Parts 160 and 164 of Title 45 of the Code of
17 Federal Regulations, established pursuant to the Health Insurance
18 Portability and Availability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

19 (4) An entity that obtains information under an agreement
20 pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 1800) of Chapter
21 1 of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code and is subject to the
22 confidentiality requirements of the Vehicle Code.

23 (5) A business that is regulated by state or federal law providing 24 greater protection to personal information than that provided by 25 this section in regard to the subjects addressed by this section.
26 Compliance with that state or federal law shall be deemed
27 compliance with this section with regard to those subjects. This 28 paragraph does not relieve a business from a duty to comply with 29 any other requirements of other state and federal law regarding
30 the protection and privacy of personal information.

31 (f) For purposes of this section, “reasonable security procedures
32 and practices” as they pertain to the storage and transmission of 33 personal information shall require, at a minimum, the security of 34 that information to the degree that any reasonably prudent business
35 would provide. All of the following shall also apply:

36 (1) At a minimum, the business shall:

37 (A) Identify reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks
38 to the privacy and security of personal information that could result
39 in the unauthorized disclosure, misuse, alteration, destruction, or 40 other compromise of the information.

1 (B) Establish, implement, and maintain safeguards reasonably
2 designed to ensure the security of the personal information,
3 including, but not limited to, protecting against unauthorized loss,
4 misuse, alteration, destruction, access to, or use of the information.

5 (C) Regularly assess the sufficiency of any safeguards in place
6 to control reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks, and
7 evaluate and adjust those safeguards in light of the assessment.

8 (D) Evaluate and adjust any material changes in the operations
9 or business arrangements of the business, or any other
10 circumstances, that create a material impact on the privacy or
11 security of personal information under control of the business.

12 (2) The reasonableness of the security procedures and practices
13 shall be determined in light of all of the following:

14 ~~(A) The degree of the privacy risk associated with the type of~~
15 ~~personal information under the business's control.~~

16 (B) The foreseeability of threats to the security of the
17 information.

18 (C) The existence of widely accepted practices in administrative,
19 technical, and physical safeguards for protecting personal
20 information.

21 (D) The cost of implementing and regularly reviewing the 22 safeguards.
