He had been accepted at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, where he was to finish his training as a corpsman and become a physician. During his first deployment, he held medical clinics for Afghan villagers and found that work to be very rewarding. He had also reached out to Rotary International and Doctors Without Borders for opportunities to serve in clinics abroad; and

WHEREAS, Kevin was highly decorated by the United States Navy. He received all of the following awards: two Bronze Stars with "V" Device, the Purple Heart, the Navy Commendation Medal, the Marine Corps Commendation Medal, the Navy Achievement Medal, the Marine Corps Achievement Medal, the Combat Action Ribbon, two Good Conduct Medals, the National Defense Service Medal, the Afghanistan Campaign Medal, the Global War on Terror Service Medal, two Sea Service Deployment Ribbons, the NATO ISAF Medal, the Expert Rifle Marksmanship Medal, and the Expert Pistol Marksmanship Medal; and
