

Assembly Concurrent Resolution

No. 167

Introduced by Assembly Member Mathis

April 12, 2016

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 167—Relative to Tax Freedom Day.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

ACR 167, as introduced, Mathis. Tax Freedom Day.

This measure would recognize April 24, 2016, as the nation’s “Tax Freedom Day” in recognition of the hardworking families, individuals, and businesses of the state, without which the ability of the government to spend revenues on any vital public service or infrastructure project would be impossible.

Fiscal committee: no.

- 1 WHEREAS, The United States has traditionally been a low-tax
2 country. From the founding of the Republic in 1776 until the early 3 part of this century, total government spending at the federal, state,
4 and local levels rarely exceeded 10 percent of national income, 5 except during wartime; and
6 WHEREAS, Tax Freedom Day is the day when Americans will 7 finally have earned enough money to pay off their entire tax bills 8 for the year, including federal and state income tax, sales tax, and 9 other taxes levied upon them; and
10 WHEREAS, According to the Tax Foundation’s annual 11 calculation, this year America can celebrate the nation’s Tax 12 Freedom Day on April 24, 2016; and

1 WHEREAS, April 24 is the same day as last year's national Tax
2 Freedom Day, which has been steadily increasing since 2009; and

3 WHEREAS, The nation's taxpayers have to work from January
4 1, 2016, to the 115th day of the year before earning enough money
5 to pay for the government at the federal, state, and local levels and 6 start spending money on essentials of life such as food, shelter, 7 and education; and

8 WHEREAS, According to the Tax Foundation's annual
9 calculation, this year California can celebrate the state's Tax 10 Freedom Day on April 30, 2016, which is 6 days longer than the 11 national average; now, therefore, be it

12 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate
13 thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes April 24, 2016, 14 as the nation's "Tax Freedom Day," in recognition of the 15 hardworking families, individuals, and businesses of the state, 16 without which the ability of the government to spend revenues on 17 any vital public service or infrastructure project would be 18 impossible; and be it further

19 Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies
20 of this resolution to the Governor and to the author for appropriate 21 distribution.
