ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 229

Introduced by Assembly Member Chang
(Coauthors: Assembly Members Brough, Kim, Low, and Olsen)

February 4, 2015

An act to add and repeal Section 19822.4 ~~to~~ of the Government Code, relating to public employment.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 229, as amended, Chang. State employees: travel reimbursement.

Under existing law and bargaining agreements, the state reimburses employees for all necessary and actual expenses they incur when they travel on official state business.

This bill ~~would~~ would, until January 1, 2019, prohibit a state agency from prohibiting state employees traveling on official state business from using transportation provided by a transportation network company or lodging in a short-term rental, as defined. The bill would require a state agency to reimburse the actual and necessary expenses of a state employee using a transportation network company or a short-term rental consistent with the agency's standard reimbursement policies. The bill would request and encourage the University of California to adopt travel reimbursement policies in accordance with that prohibition. The bill would define terms for those purposes.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

8 reimbursement, a short-term rental shall be considered a
9 commercial lodging establishment.
10 (2) “Transportation network company” has the same meaning
11 as defined in Section 5431 of the Public Utilities Code.
12 (b) (1) A state agency shall not prohibit state employees
13 traveling on official state business from using transportation
14 provided by a transportation network company or lodging in a
15 short-term rental.
16 (2) Reimbursement shall be provided for necessary and actual
17 expenses, consistent with the agency’s policies for reimbursement
18 of other lodging establishments or other vehicles for hire.
19 (c) The Legislature requests and encourages the University of 20 California to adopt travel reimbursement policies in accordance 21 with this section.
22 (d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2019,
