An act to amend Section 6343 of the Family Code, relating to family law.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 439, as introduced, Bloom. Protective orders: batterer's program.

Existing law authorizes a court to issue an order to restrain any person in order to prevent acts of domestic violence, abuse, and sexual abuse and to provide for a separation of the persons involved in the domestic violence for a period sufficient to enable these persons to seek a resolution of the causes of the violence. Existing law further authorizes a court to, after notice and hearing, issue an order requiring the restrained party to participate in a batterer's program, as specified.

This bill would, commencing July 1, 2016, require a restrained party ordered to participate in a batterer's program to register for the program by a specified deadline and to, upon enrollment, sign all necessary program consent forms for the program to release specified documents, including proof of enrollment, to the court and the protected party or his or her attorney. The bill would require the Judicial Council to amend the existing restraining order forms or develop a new form for use by courts that includes these requirements.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 6343 of the Family Code is amended to
2 read:

3 6343. (a) After notice and a hearing, the court may issue an
