An act relating to the University of California.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2302, as introduced, Harper. University of California: labor institute.

The California Constitution provides that the University of California constitutes a public trust administered by the Regents of the University of California, a corporation in the form of a board, with full powers of organization and government, subject to legislative control only for specified purposes.

This bill would urge the regents to refrain from forming a labor institute at the University of California, Irvine.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. The Legislature urges the Regents of the
- 2 University of California to refrain from forming a labor institute
- 3 at the University of California, Irvine.
