CHAPTER _____

An act to add Section 51.14 to the Civil Code, and to amend Section 12930 of the Government Code, relating to civil rights.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2707, Ridley-Thomas. Stop Consumer Racial Profiling Act of 2016.

Existing law, the Unruh Civil Rights Act, states that all persons within this state are free and equal, and no matter what their sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, citizenship, primary language, or immigration status are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments. Under existing law, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing is responsible for receiving, investigating, conciliating, mediating, and prosecuting complaints alleging a violation of the act.

This bill would enact the Stop Consumer Racial Profiling Act of 2016, which would prohibit a business establishment from using consumer racial profiling, as defined. The bill would also make the Department of Fair Employment and Housing responsible for the enforcement of the act.

This bill would incorporate additional changes to Section 12930 of the Government Code, proposed by SB 1442, to be operative only if SB 1442 and this bill are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 2017, and this bill is chaptered last.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51.14 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

51.14. (a) This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the Stop Consumer Racial Profiling Act of 2016.

(b) No business establishment shall use consumer racial profiling.

(c) For purposes of this section, "consumer racial profiling" shall mean the profiling or targeting of a person that results in differential treatment based on his or her race or ethnicity and that constitutes a denial or degradation in the product or service offered to customers. “Consumer racial profiling” includes, but is not limited to, refusal to serve, removal from the business establishment premises, segregated seating, requiring additional forms of identification, and surveillance practices based on race or ethnicity.
