

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 18, 2016

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2015–16 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2819

Introduced by Assembly Member Chiu

February 19, 2016

An act to amend Section 1161.2 ~~of, and to add Section 1167.1 to, of~~ the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to unlawful detainer proceedings.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2819, as amended, Chiu. Unlawful detainer proceedings.

Under existing law, a tenant of real property, for a term less than life, or the executor or administrator or his or her estate, is guilty of unlawful detainer when he or she continues in possession, in person or by subtenant, of the property or any part of the property, after the expiration of the term for which it is let to him or her, except as specified. Under existing law access to limited civil case records filed in an unlawful detainer action is restricted to (1) parties to the action, (2) certain people who provide the court clerk with specified information about the parties to the action, (3) any person by order of the court on a showing of good cause, and (4) any other person 60 days after the complaint has been filed, unless the defendant prevails in the action within 60 days after the filing of the complaint, in which case access is limited to the other parties allowed access, as described above.

This bill would instead provide that access to limited civil case records filed in an unlawful detainer action is restricted, for purposes of (4), as described above, to any other person ~~if 60 days have elapsed since the complaint was filed and judgment against all defendants has been entered for the plaintiff based on certain occurrences, as specified. 60 days after the complaint has been filed if the plaintiff prevails in the~~ action within 60 days of the filing of the complaint. The bill would provide that if a default or default judgment is set aside more than 60 days after the complaint was filed, the court file access restrictions, as described above, shall apply as if the complaint had been filed on the date the default or the default judgment is set aside. The bill would authorize the parties to stipulate to, and would require the court to issue, an order prohibiting the clerk from allowing access to any court records in the action, pending a further order of the court. the court to bar access to court records in the action if the parties so stipulate.

~~Existing law requires a summons in a unlawful detainer proceeding to be issued, served, and returned in the same manner as a summons in a civil action except that when the defendant is served, the defendant's response must be filed within 5 days, instead of 30 days.~~

~~This bill would require an unlawful detainer proceeding to be dismissed without prejudice if 60 days elapse after a complaint is filed and no proof of service of the summons has been filed.~~

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
 State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the
- 2 following:
- 3 (i) It is the policy of the state to promote open access to public
- 4 records. It is in the interest of the public to ensure, to the greatest
- 5 extent possible, that there is open public access to court records,
- 6 including civil case records.
- 7 (b) It is the policy of the state that access to public records be
- 8 limited or restricted only under compelling circumstances.
- 9 (c) With the enactment of Chapter 1007 of the Statutes of 1991,
- 10 the Legislature began restricting public access to civil case records
- 11 in unlawful detainer proceedings. Under current law, with limited
- 12 exceptions, civil case records in unlawful detainer proceedings
- 13 are unavailable to the public for a period of 60 days after filing.
- 14 Civil case records in unlawful detainer proceedings in which the
- 15 defendant prevails within 60 days of filing are permanently
- 16 unavailable to the public.
- 17 (d) The state has a housing crisis that requires revising the
- 18 current restrictions on public access to civil case records in
- 19 unlawful detainer proceedings. More than four decades have

1 passed since the California Supreme Court first observed, in Green
2 v. Superior Court (1974) 10 Cal.3d 616, 625, “a scarcity of 3 adequate low cost housing in virtually every urban setting [in 4 California].” Yet the shortage of affordable housing for 5 low-income tenants has only grown. Median monthly rents in the 6 state are now approximately 50 percent higher than the national 7 average, but high prices have failed to spur sufficient housing
8 construction to meet demand. As a result, households in the state
9 in the bottom quarter of the income distribution spend an average
10 of 67 percent of their income on housing. The recent economic 11 and foreclosure crises have only exacerbated the challenges that 12 low-income households face in securing affordable housing.

13 (e) The difficulty of securing affordable housing in competitive
14 rental markets is also worsened by the existing law governing 15 access to civil case records in unlawful detainer proceedings.
16 Specifically, once unlawful detainer civil case records become 17 public, tenant screening companies and credit reporting agencies
18 capture and publish personal identifying information regarding 19 tenants named as defendants in those records. This information
20 appears in published lists, known as unlawful detainer registries,
21 and on tenants’ credit reports. So long as it is accurate, the fact 22 that a tenant was once sued for unlawful detainer is publicly
23 available for up to seven years and cannot be challenged under 24 federal or state laws governing consumer credit reporting.

25 (f) The names of thousands of innocent tenants whose cases are 26 resolved only after the 60-day deadline appear on unlawful 27 detainer registries. Many of these tenants successfully settle, secure 28 a dismissal, or win at trial, and would have escaped negative credit
29 reporting if only they had prevailed before the deadline. In other 30 instances, unlawful detainer complaints are filed against tenants
31 but never served. Because these complaints are never dismissed,
32 the tenant’s name is publicly released after 60 days and negative
33 credit reporting ensues. Because landlords, who are attempting 34 to decide between numerous applicants for scarce rental housing,
35 rely on unlawful detainer registries and on credit reports, landlords
36 often choose not to rent to tenants who appear on these registries, 37 even if the tenants were eventually found innocent of unlawful 38 detainer. As a result, given the statewide housing shortage, these 39 tenants may be shut out of rental markets for up to seven years
40 through no fault of their own.

1 (g) This act strikes a just balance between ensuring open access
 2 to public records and protecting the credit and reputation of 3 innocent tenants. This act also ensures that landlords will have 4 access to timely and more accurate information regarding
 5 prospective tenants. This act is a response to the state’s ongoing 6 affordable housing crisis and is necessary to prevent tenants from 7 being inadvertently denied an opportunity to secure housing simply 8 as a result of being named in an unlawful detainer lawsuit.

9 SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to amend existing 10 statutes regarding open access to public records by making
 11 permanently unavailable to the public civil case records in 12 unlawful detainer proceedings in which the plaintiff does not
 13 prevail within 60 days of filing instead of unlawful detainer
 14 proceedings in which the defendant prevails within 60 days of 15 filing.

16 SECTION 4.

17 SEC. 3. Section 1161.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is 18 amended to read:

19 1161.2. (a) (1) The clerk shall allow access to limited civil 20 case records filed under this chapter, including the court file, index, 21 and register of actions, only as follows:

- 22 (A) To a party to the action, including a party’s attorney.
- 23 (B) To a person who provides the clerk with the names of at 24 least one plaintiff and one defendant and the address of the 25 premises, including the apartment or unit number, if any.
- 26 (C) To a resident of the premises who provides the clerk with 27 the name of one of the parties or the case number and shows proof 28 of residency.
- 29 (D) To a person by order of the court, which may be granted ex 30 parte, on a showing of good cause.
- 31 ~~(E) To any other person if 60 days have elapsed since the~~ 32 ~~complaint has been filed and, as of the 60th day, judgment against~~ 33 ~~all defendants has been entered for the plaintiff based on any of~~ 34 ~~the following:~~
 - 35 ~~(i) Default, upon written application of the plaintiff and proof~~
 36 ~~of service of the summons, unless the default or default judgment~~
 37 ~~has been set aside. If the default or default judgment is set aside~~
 38 ~~more than 60 days after the complaint has been filed, this section~~
 39 ~~shall apply as if the complaint has been filed on the date the default~~ 40 ~~or default judgment is set aside.~~

1 ~~(ii) Summary judgment.~~

2 ~~(iii) Trial.~~

3 ~~(iv) Stipulation by all the parties.~~

4 (E) Except as provided in subparagraph (F), to any other person
5 60 days after the complaint has been filed if the plaintiff prevails 6 in the action within 60 days of the filing of the complaint, in which 7 case the clerk shall allow access to any court records in the action.
8 If a default or default judgment is set aside more than 60 days
9 after the complaint has been filed, this section shall apply as if the 10 complaint has been filed on the date the default or default judgment 11 is set aside.

12 (F) In the case of a complaint involving residential property
13 based on Section 1161a as indicated in the caption of the complaint,
14 as required in subdivision (c) of Section 1166, to any other person, 15 if 60 days have elapsed since the complaint was filed with the 16 court, and, as of that date, judgment against all defendants has 17 been entered for the plaintiff, after a trial.

18 ~~(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the~~ 19 ~~parties stipulate, the court shall issue an order prohibiting the clerk~~ 20 ~~from allowing access to any court records in an action filed under~~ 21 ~~this chapter, pending further order of the court.~~

22 (2) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the court from 23 issuing an order that bars access to the court record in an action
24 filed under this chapter if the parties to the action so stipulate.

25 (b) (1) For purposes of this section, “good cause” includes,
26 but is not limited to, the to, both of the following:

27 (A) The gathering of newsworthy facts by a person described 28 in Section 1070 of the Evidence Code.†

29 (B) The gathering of evidence by a party to an unlawful detainer
30 action solely for the purpose of making a request for judicial notice
31 pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 452 of the Evidence Code.

32 (2) It is the intent of the Legislature that a simple procedure be 33 established to request the ex parte order described in subparagraph
34 (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

35 (c) Upon the filing of a case so restricted, the court clerk shall 36 mail notice to each defendant named in the action. The notice shall 37 be mailed to the address provided in the complaint. The notice
38 shall contain a statement that an unlawful detainer complaint
39 (eviction action) has been filed naming that party as a defendant, 40 and that access to the court file will be delayed for 60 days except

1 to a party, an attorney for one of the parties, or any other person
2 who (1) provides to the clerk the names of at least one plaintiff
3 and one defendant in the action and provides to the clerk the 4 address, including any applicable apartment, unit, or space number,
5 of the subject premises, or (2) provides to the clerk the name of 6 one of the parties in the action or the case number and can establish 7 through proper identification that he or she lives at the subject
8 premises. The notice shall also contain a statement that access to 9 the court index, register of actions, or other records is not permitted 10 until 60 days after the complaint is filed, except pursuant to an 11 order upon a showing of good cause for access. The notice shall 12 contain on its face the following information:

13 (1) The name and telephone number of the county bar
14 association.

15 (2) The name and telephone number of any entity that requests
16 inclusion on the notice and demonstrates to the satisfaction of the 17 court that it has been certified by the State Bar of California as a 18 lawyer referral service and maintains a panel of attorneys qualified 19 in the practice of landlord-tenant law pursuant to the minimum
20 standards for a lawyer referral service established by the State Bar
21 of California and Section 6155 of the Business and Professions
22 Code.

23 (3) The following statement:
24

25 “The State Bar of California certifies lawyer referral services in 26 California and publishes a list of certified lawyer referral services 27 organized by county. To locate a lawyer referral service in your 28 county, go to the State Bar’s Internet Web site at 29 www.calbar.ca.gov or call 1-866-442-2529.”
30

31 (4) The name and telephone number of an office or offices
32 funded by the federal Legal Services Corporation or qualified legal 33 services projects that receive funds distributed pursuant to Section 34 6216 of the Business and Professions Code that provide legal 35 services to low-income persons in the county in which the action
36 is filed. The notice shall state that these telephone numbers may 37 be called for legal advice regarding the case. The notice shall be 38 issued between 24 and 48 hours of the filing of the complaint, 39 excluding weekends and holidays. One copy of the notice shall be 40 addressed to “all occupants” and mailed separately to the subject

1 premises. The notice shall not constitute service of the summons
2 and complaint.

3 (d) Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall charge an 4 additional fee of fifteen dollars ($15) for filing a first appearance
5 by the plaintiff. This fee shall be added to the uniform filing fee
6 for actions filed under this chapter.

7 (e) This section does not apply to a case that seeks to terminate 8 a mobilehome park tenancy if the statement of the character of the 9 proceeding in the caption of the complaint clearly indicates that 10 the complaint seeks termination of a mobilehome park tenancy.

11 (f) This section does not alter any provision of the Evidence
12 Code.

13 ~~SEC. 2. Section 1167.1 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure,~~
14 ~~to read:~~

15 ~~1167.1. If 60 days elapse after the complaint is filed and no~~
16 ~~proof of service of the summons has been filed, the action shall~~ 17 ~~be dismissed without prejudice.~~
