Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 122—Relative to Autism Awareness Month.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 122, as amended, Beall. Autism Awareness Month.

This measure would designate the month of April 2016 as Autism Awareness Month and would encourage residents to show support for autism awareness by lighting their homes, businesses, schools, and places of worship with blue light bulbs.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, Autism is a pervasive developmental disorder
2 affecting the social, communication, and behavioral skills of those 3 affected by it; and

4 WHEREAS, More children are being diagnosed on the autism
5 spectrum than ever before with diagnoses as high as one in 68
6 children nationally, and one in 42 boys; and

7 WHEREAS, There is no cure for autism, but it is 8 well-documented that if individuals with autism receive treatment
9 early in their lives, it is often possible for those individuals to lead 10 significantly improved lives; and

11 WHEREAS, Individuals with autism often require a lifetime of 12 specialized and community support services to ensure their health 13 and safety, and to support families' resilience as they manage the 14 psychological and financial burdens autism presents; and

15 WHEREAS, Autism Speaks and autism services providers
16 throughout the state are organizing the Light It Up Blue campaign
17 and Autism Awareness Day in order to educate parents,
18 professionals, and the general public about autism and its impact; 19 and

20 WHEREAS, In support of the Light It Up Blue campaign, nearly 21 3,000 iconic structures and landmarks, including the Empire State 22 Building in New York City and the Sydney Opera House in 23 Australia, in more than 600 United States cities and 70 countries
24 will shine a light on autism as a growing public health crisis by 25 being illuminated with blue light; now, therefore, be it
