An act to ~~amend Section 2983.3 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 703.140, 704.010, 704.113, 704.115, 704.720, 704.730, and 704.960 of, and to add Sections 704.085, 704.111, and 704.165 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Section 22329 of the Financial Code,~~ relating to bankruptcy.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 308, as amended, Wieckowski. Debtor exemptions.

Existing law prohibits the seller or holder of a conditional sale contract for a motor vehicle from accelerating the maturity of any part or all of the amount due under the contract or repossessing the vehicle in the absence of default in the performance of any of the buyer's obligations under the contract.

This bill would provide that neither the act of filing a bankruptcy petition by the buyer or other person liable on the contract nor the status of either of those persons as a debtor in bankruptcy constitutes a default in the performance of any of the buyer's obligations under the contract and neither may be used as a basis for accelerating the maturity of any part or all of the amount due under the contract or for repossessing the motor vehicle.

Existing law identifies various types of property of a judgment debtor that are exempt from the enforcement of a money judgment. Existing law provides that property described in statute as exempt may be claimed within the time and in the manner prescribed in the applicable enforcement procedure, and property described in statute as exempt without making a claim is not subject to any procedure for enforcement of a money judgment. These general exemptions are available to a debtor in a federal bankruptcy case, whether a money judgment is being enforced by execution sale or other procedure, unless the debtor elects certain alternative exemptions.

Existing law requires the Judicial Council to, every 3 years, adjust the amount of the exemptions applicable to exempt property based on the change in the annual California Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, and to prepare conforming forms for those adjustments.

This bill would increase the statutory amounts of various exemptions to reflect the amounts of the exemptions as adjusted by the Judicial Council effective April 1, 2013.

Existing law authorizes a husband and wife who jointly file a bankruptcy petition to jointly elect to utilize the general exemptions or the alternative exemptions, but not both. The general exemptions are applicable if a bankruptcy petition is filed individually, and not jointly, for a husband or a wife, except that the husband and wife may jointly waive in writing their right to claim, during the period the case commenced by filing the petition is pending, the general exemptions and instead elect to utilize the alternative exemptions.

This bill would provide that a joint waiver is not required from a debtor who is separated from his or her spouse as of the date the bankruptcy petition is filed, unless, on the petition date, the debtor and the debtor's spouse shared an ownership interest in property that could be exempted as a homestead, as specified.

Existing law includes an alternative exemption for the debtor's right to receive a payment under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor, unless all of several specified conditions apply, including that the plan or contract does not qualify under specified provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

This bill would provide that a plan or contract covered by this alternative exemption would be exempt even if it did not qualify under the specified provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986 so long as the sole basis for the failure to qualify is a technical defect.

Existing law includes alternative exemptions for the debtor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to, a payment on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom the debtor was a dependent and a payment under a life insurance contract that insured the life of an individual of whom the debtor was a dependent on the date of that individual's death.

This bill would make these exemptions applicable, as well, to payments regarding an individual of whom the debtor was a spouse.

Existing law includes an alternative exemption for the debtor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to, a payment on account of personal bodily injury of the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is a dependent. Existing law sets this amount as $25,575, as adjusted by the Judicial Council.

This bill would make this exemption applicable, as well, to a payment on account of personal bodily injury of the spouse of the debtor.

Existing law includes an alternative exemption for the debtor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to, a payment in compensation of loss of future earnings of the debtor or an individual of whom the debtor is or was a dependent to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and a dependent of the debtor.

This bill would make this exemption applicable, as well, to a payment regarding an individual of whom the debtor is or was a spouse, and would provide that the exemption applies to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and a spouse or dependent of the debtor.

Existing law provides that vacation credits, as defined, are exempt from enforcement of a money judgment without making a claim.

This bill would delete the definition of "vacation credits" set forth in these provisions and expand this general exemption to also include accrued or unused vacation pay, sick leave, and family leave. The bill also would add an alternative exemption for the debtor's right to receive these expanded assets.

Existing law exempts any combination of aggregate equity in motor vehicles, the proceeds of an execution sale of a motor vehicle, and the proceeds of insurance or other indemnification for the loss, damage, or destruction of a motor vehicle. Existing law sets this amount of this exemption, as adjusted by the Judicial Council, at $2,900. Existing law includes an alternative exemption for up to $5,100, as adjusted by the Judicial Council, of the debtor's interest in one or more motor vehicles.

This bill would increase the amount of the general and alternative exemption for motor vehicle equity to $6,000, and make conforming changes.

This bill would provide that the aggregate interest of a debtor who is engaged in business, not to exceed $5,000 in cash or deposit accounts, accounts receivable, and inventory of the business is exempt.

Existing law includes an alternative exemption for the debtor's right to receive alimony, support, or separate maintenance, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor.

This bill would provide that these assets are exempt, thereby adding a general exemption matching the existing alternative exemption.

Existing law provides that all amounts held, controlled, or in process of distribution by a private retirement plan, for the payment of benefits as an annuity, pension, retirement allowance, disability payment, or death benefit from a private retirement plan are exempt. Existing law defines "private retirement plan" to include self-employed retirement plans and individual retirement annuities or accounts provided for in the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, including individual retirement accounts qualified under specified provisions of that code.

This bill would expand this exemption to also include individual retirement accounts that do not qualify under those specified provisions on the basis of a technical defect alone.

Existing law provides that various causes of action and awards of damages or settlements arising out of those actions are exempt to varying extent, as specified.

This bill would provide that a cause of action arising out of or regarding the violation of any law relating to the judgment debtor's employment is exempt without making a claim, except as provided in specified statutory provisions, and an award of damages or a settlement arising out of or regarding the violation of any law relating to the judgment debtor's employment is exempt to the extent necessary for the support of the judgment debtor and the spouse and dependents of the judgment debtor. The bill also would add identical alternative exemptions in this regard.

Existing law provides that the proceeds of sale or of insurance or other indemnification for damage or destruction of a homestead, the proceeds received as compensation for a homestead acquired for public use, or the proceeds from a voluntary sale of a declared homestead, are exempt in the amount of the homestead exemption provided in a specified statute for a period of 6 months after the time the proceeds are actually received by the judgment debtor, except as provided.

This bill would specify that, in a case under Title 11 of the United States Code, regardless of whether the sale is voluntary or involuntary, the expiration of the 6-month period at any time after the filing of the case does not terminate the exempt status of the homestead or its proceeds.

Existing law provides that a specified portion of equity in a homestead, as defined, is exempt from execution to satisfy a judgment debt and prescribes that the amount of the homestead exemption is either $75,000, $100,000, or $175,000, depending on certain characteristics of the homestead's residents.

This bill would increase these exemptions to $100,000, $150,000, or $300,000, respectively.

~~Existing law provides that, in the absence of default in the performance of a borrower's obligations under a loan secured in whole or in part by a lien on a motor vehicle, as defined, a licensee may not accelerate the maturity of any or all of the amount due on the loan or repossess the motor vehicle.~~

~~This bill would provide that neither the act of filing a bankruptcy petition by the borrower or other person liable on the loan nor the status of either of those persons as a debtor in bankruptcy constitutes a default in the performance of any of the borrower's obligations under the loan and neither may be used as a basis for accelerating the maturity of any part or all of the amount due under the loan or for repossessing the motor vehicle.~~

This bill would incorporate changes to Section 703.140 of the Code of Civil Procedure proposed by both this bill and SB 1005, which would become operative only if both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 2017, and this bill is chaptered last.

11 exemptions provided by this chapter, as follows:

16 ~~SEC. 6.~~

17 SEC. 5. Section 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
18 amended to read:

19 704.113. (a) All vacation credits or accrued, or unused,
20 vacation pay, sick leave, or family leave is exempt without making
21 a claim.

22 (b) Amounts paid periodically or as a lump sum representing
23 vacation credits are subject to any earnings withholding order
24 served under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010) or 25 any earnings assignment order for support as defined in Section
26 706.011 and are exempt to the same extent as earnings of a
27 judgment debtor.

28 ~~SEC. 7.~~

29 SEC. 6. Section 704.115 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
30 amended to read:

31 704.115. (a) As used in this section, “private retirement plan”
32 means:

33 (1) Private retirement plans, including, but not limited to, union
34 retirement plans.

35 (2) Profit-sharing plans designed and used for retirement
36 purposes.

37 (3) Self-employed retirement plans and individual retirement
38 annuities or accounts provided for in the Internal Revenue Code
39 of 1986, as amended, including individual retirement accounts
40 qualified under Section 408 or 408A of that code and accounts

1 that do not qualify on the basis of a technical defect alone, to the 2 extent the amounts held in the plans, annuities, or accounts do not
3 exceed the maximum amounts exempt from federal income taxation
4 under that code.

5 (b) All amounts held, controlled, or in process of distribution
6 by a private retirement plan, for the payment of benefits as an
7 annuity, pension, retirement allowance, disability payment, or 8 death benefit from a private retirement plan are exempt.

9 (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), where an amount described
10 in subdivision (b) becomes payable to a person and is sought to 11 be applied to the satisfaction of a judgment for child, family, or 12 spousal support against that person:

13 (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amount is exempt
14 only to the extent that the court determines under subdivision (c)
15 of Section 703.070.

16 (2) If the amount sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the 17 judgment is payable periodically, the amount payable is subject
18 to an earnings assignment order for support as defined in Section 19 706.011 or any other applicable enforcement procedure, but the 20 amount to be withheld pursuant to the assignment order or other
21 procedure shall not exceed the amount permitted to be withheld
22 on an earnings withholding order for support under Section
23 706.052.

24 (d) After payment, the amounts described in subdivision (b)
25 and all contributions and interest thereon returned to any member
26 of a private retirement plan are exempt.

27 (e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (d), except as provided 28 in subdivision (f), the amounts described in paragraph (3) of 29 subdivision (a) are exempt only to the extent necessary to provide 30 for the support of the judgment debtor when the judgment debtor
31 retires and for the support of the spouse and dependents of the 32 judgment debtor, taking into account all resources that are likely 33 to be available for the support of the judgment debtor when the 34 judgment debtor retires. In determining the amount to be exempt
35 under this subdivision, the court shall allow the judgment debtor
36 such additional amount as is necessary to pay any federal and state
37 income taxes payable as a result of the applying of an amount 38 described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) to the satisfaction of 39 the money judgment.

1 (f) Where the amounts described in paragraph (3) of subdivision
2 (a) are payable periodically, the amount of the periodic payment
3 that may be applied to the satisfaction of a money judgment is the 4 amount that may be withheld from a like amount of earnings under
5 Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010). To the extent a 6 lump-sum distribution from an individual retirement account is 7 treated differently from a periodic distribution under this
8 subdivision, any lump-sum distribution from an account qualified
9 under Section 408A of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated
10 the same as a lump-sum distribution from an account qualified
11 under Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of 12 determining whether any of that payment may be applied to the 13 satisfaction of a money judgment.

18 with Section 708.410) of Chapter 6, a cause of action arising out
19 of or regarding the violation of any law relating to the judgment
20 debtor's employment is exempt without making a claim.

21 (b) An award of damages from or a settlement arising out of or 25 debtor.

26 ~~SEC. 9:~~

27 SEC. 8. Section 704.720 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
28 amended to read:

29 704.720. (a) A homestead is exempt from sale under this
30 division to the extent provided in Section 704.800.

31 (b) (1) If a homestead is sold under this division or is damaged
32 or destroyed or is acquired for public use, the proceeds of sale or 33 of insurance or other indemnification for damage or destruction
34 of the homestead or the proceeds received as compensation for a 35 homestead acquired for public use are exempt in the amount of 36 the homestead exemption provided in Section 704.730 for a period
37 of six months after the time the proceeds are actually received by 38 the judgment debtor, except as provided in paragraph (2).

39 (2) If a homestead exemption is applied to other property of the 40 judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse during the

1 six-month period described in paragraph (1), the proceeds thereafter
2 are not exempt.

3 (3) In a case under Title 11 of the United States Code, regardless
4 of whether the sale is voluntary or involuntary, the expiration of
5 the six-month period described in paragraph (1) at any time after 6 the filing of the case shall not terminate the exempt status of the 7 homestead or its proceeds.

8 (c) If the judgment debtor and spouse of the judgment debtor
9 reside in separate homesteads, only the homestead of one of the 10 spouses is exempt and only the proceeds of the exempt homestead
11 are exempt.

12 (d) (1) If a judgment debtor is not currently residing in the 13 homestead, but his or her separated or former spouse continues to 14 reside in or exercise control over possession of the homestead, that 15 judgment debtor continues to be entitled to an exemption under 16 this article until entry of judgment or other legally enforceable
17 agreement dividing the community property between the judgment
18 debtor and the separated or former spouse, or until a later time
19 period as specified by court order.

20 (2) Nothing in this subdivision shall entitle the judgment debtor
21 to more than one exempt homestead.

22 (3) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 704.710, for 23 purposes of this article, “spouse” may include a separated or former 24 spouse consistent with this subdivision.

25 ~~SEC. 10.~~

26 SEC. 9. Section 704.730 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
27 amended to read:

28 704.730. (a) The amount of the homestead exemption is one
29 of the following:

30 (1) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) unless the 31 judgment debtor or spouse of the judgment debtor who resides in 32 the homestead is a person described in paragraph (2) or (3).

33 (2) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) if the 34 judgment debtor or spouse of the judgment debtor who resides in 35 the homestead is at the time of the attempted sale of the homestead
36 a member of a family unit, and there is at least one member of the 37 family unit who owns no interest in the homestead or whose only 38 interest in the homestead is a community property interest with 39 the judgment debtor.

1 (3) Three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) if the judgment
2 debtor or spouse of the judgment debtor who resides in the 3 homestead is at the time of the attempted sale of the homestead
4 any one of the following:

5 (A) A person 65 years of age or older.

6 (B) A person physically or mentally disabled who as a result of 7 that disability is unable to engage in substantial gainful
8 employment. There is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden
9 of proof that a person receiving disability insurance benefit
10 payments under Title II or supplemental security income payments
11 under Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act satisfies the 12 requirements of this paragraph as to his or her inability to engage 13 in substantial gainful employment.

14 (C) A person 55 years of age or older with a gross annual income
15 of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or, if the 16 judgment debtor is married, a gross annual income, including the 17 gross annual income of the judgment debtor's spouse, of not more 18 than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) and the sale is an 19 involuntary sale.

20 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the 21 combined homestead exemptions of spouses on the same judgment
22 shall not exceed the amount specified in paragraph (2) or (3) of 23 subdivision (a), regardless of whether the spouses are jointly
24 obligated on the judgment and regardless of whether the homestead
25 consists of community or separate property or both.
26 Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if both spouses
27 are entitled to a homestead exemption, the exemption of proceeds 28 of the homestead shall be apportioned between the spouses on the 29 basis of their proportionate interests in the homestead.

30 (c) A person who knowingly executes, or attempts to execute,
31 a scheme or artifice to do either of the following is not entitled to 32 a homestead exemption under this chapter:

33 (1) Defraud any person in connection with any commodity for 34 future delivery, or any option on a commodity for future delivery,
35 or any security of an issuer with a class of securities registered
36 under Section 12 of the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934
37 or who is required to file reports under Section 15(d) of that act.

38 (2) Obtain, by means of false or fraudulent pretenses,
39 representations, or promises, any money or property in connection
40 with the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery,

1 or any option on a commodity for future delivery, or any security
2 of an issuer with a class of securities registered under Section 12
3 of the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or who is required
4 to file reports under Section 15(d) of that act.

5 ~~SEC. 11.~~

6 SEC. 10. Section 704.960 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
7 amended to read:

8 704.960. (a) (1) If a declared homestead is voluntarily sold,
9 the proceeds of sale are exempt in the amount provided by Section
10 704.730 for a period of six months after the date of the sale.

11 (2) In a case under Title 11 of the United States Code, regardless
12 of whether the sale is voluntary or involuntary, the expiration of
13 the six-month period described in paragraph (1) at any time after 14 the filing of such case shall not terminate the exempt status of the 15 homestead or its proceeds.

16 (b) If the proceeds of a declared homestead are invested in a
17 new dwelling within six months after the date of a voluntary sale
18 or within six months after proceeds of an execution sale or of 19 insurance or other indemnification for damage or destruction are 20 received, the new dwelling may be selected as a declared
21 homestead by recording a homestead declaration within the 22 applicable six-month period. In that case, the homestead declaration 23 shall have the same effect as if it had been recorded at the time the 24 prior homestead declaration was recorded.

34 (2) ~~Neither the act of filing a petition commencing a case for~~ 35 ~~bankruptcy under Title 11 of the United States Code by the~~ 36 ~~borrower or other person liable on the loan nor the status of either~~ 37 ~~of those persons as a debtor in bankruptcy constitutes a default in~~ 38 ~~the performance of any of the borrower's obligations under the~~ 39 ~~loan, and neither may be used as a basis for accelerating the~~

1 maturity of any part or all of the amount due under the loan or for
2 repossessing the motor vehicle.

3 ~~(e) If, after default by the borrower, the licensee repossesses or~~
4 ~~voluntarily accepts surrender of the motor vehicle, any person~~
5 ~~liable on the loan shall have a right to reinstate the loan and the~~ 6 ~~licensee shall not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the~~ 7 ~~loan prior to the expiration of the right to reinstate, unless the~~ 8 ~~licensee reasonably and in good faith determines that:~~

9 ~~(1) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan by~~
10 ~~omission or commission intentionally provided false or misleading~~
11 ~~information of material importance on his or her credit application.~~

12 ~~(2) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan has~~

20 ~~(d) Exercise of the right to reinstate the loan shall be limited to~~ 21 ~~once in any 12-month period and twice during the term of the loan.~~

22 ~~(e) The provisions of this subdivision shall govern the method~~
23 ~~by which a loan shall be reinstated with respect to curing events~~
24 ~~of default that were grounds for repossession or that occurred~~
25 ~~subsequent to repossession.~~

26 ~~(1) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to~~ 27 ~~make any payment due under the loan, the borrower or any other~~
28 ~~person liable on the loan shall make the defaulted payments and~~ 29 ~~pay any applicable delinquency charges.~~

30 ~~(2) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to~~
31 ~~keep and maintain the motor vehicle free from all encumbrances~~
32 ~~and liens of every kind, the borrower or any person liable on the~~ 33 ~~loan shall either satisfy all the encumbrances and liens or, in the~~ 34 ~~event the licensee satisfies the encumbrances and liens, the~~ 35 ~~borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse~~
36 ~~the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.~~

37 ~~(3) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to~~
38 ~~keep and maintain insurance on the motor vehicle, the borrower~~
39 ~~or any other person liable on the loan shall either obtain the~~ 40 ~~insurance or, in the event the licensee has obtained the insurance,~~

1 the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse
2 the licensee for premiums paid and all reasonable costs and
3 expenses incurred therefor.

4 (4) ~~Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to 5 perform any other obligation under the loan, unless the licensee
6 has made a good faith determination that the default is so
7 substantial as to be incurable, the borrower or any other person
8 liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable
9 costs and expenses incurred therefor.~~

10 (5) ~~Additionally, the borrower or any other person liable on the 11 loan shall reimburse the licensee for actual and necessary fees in 12 an amount not exceeding the amount specified in subdivision (f)
13 of Section 22202 paid in connection with the repossession of a 14 motor vehicle to a repossession agency licensed pursuant to 15 Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the 16 Business and Professions Code, and actual fees in conformity with 17 Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount
18 not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the 19 Government Code.~~

20 (f) ~~If the licensee denies the right to reinstatement under 21 subdivision (e) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), the licensee
22 shall have the burden of proof that the denial was justified in that 23 it was reasonable and made in good faith. If the licensee fails to 24 sustain the burden of proof, the licensee shall not be entitled to a 25 deficiency.~~
