

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 7

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 5

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 7—Relative to proclaiming Architecture Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 13, 1995.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 7, Hauser. Architecture Week.

This measure would proclaim March 27 through April 2, 1995, as Architecture Week.

WHEREAS, Architecture influences the daily lives of all Californians through the definition and enhancement of the areas in which we work, play, and live; and

WHEREAS, More than 15,000 licensed architects practice in California and are entrusted by the state to protect the public health, safety, and welfare through their concern for, and understanding of, important issues such as seismic safety, growth management, accessibility for people with disabilities, historic preservation, energy conservation, housing for the homeless, and the sensitivity of the relationship between nature and the built environment; and

WHEREAS, California architects have been recognized as forerunners of architectural design in the United States and have helped create California's unique visual character through their innovative and responsive designs of public and private spaces; and

WHEREAS, Architects have worked with teachers to establish a built environment education program in California's public schools to teach young people about the relationship between people and their built environments; and

WHEREAS, The American Institute of Architects, California Council (AIACC), in representing architects and the architectural profession in California, has worked in concert with other organizations in the design and construction industry to endeavor to streamline the state government's regulation of their industries; and

WHEREAS, Architects at local AIA chapters have worked diligently to represent architects and the architectural profession and to serve the public interest on issues as community disaster assistance following earthquakes and fires, managing growth, housing the homeless, and preserving the architectural heritage of our communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of March 27 through April 2, 1995, is hereby proclaimed Architecture Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to become aware of architecture, architectural design, and the architects who helped to shape our built and natural environments; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
