RESOLUTION CHAPTER 37

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 49—Relative to Law Enforcement Appreciation Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 9, 1997.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 49, Alby. Law Enforcement Appreciation Week.

This measure would proclaim May 11 through May 17, 1997, as Law Enforcement Appreciation Week in California and would encourage all Californians to join in this observance to commend our law enforcement officers for their professionalism and commitment to the citizens of California.

WHEREAS, Public safety for the citizens of this state is of the utmost priority; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement officers of this state are on the front lines daily risking their lives to ensure that each citizen can live in a safe and secure environment; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement officers work in partnership with their community to protect life and property, solve neighborhood problems, and enhance the quality of life in this state; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement officers bear the public trust and dedicate themselves to the protection of the safety and rights of the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, The second week of May has been dedicated to law enforcement officers by the United States Congress as National Police Memorial Week to honor all officers who have given the ultimate sacrifice while in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, Ceremonies will be held in Sacramento in conjunction with National Police Memorial Week and Law Enforcement Appreciation Week, acknowledging the sacrifices and dedication of our local law enforcement professionals; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement officers and their families and friends encourage the community to participate and acknowledge the sacrifices of those brave men and women who are entrusted with the public safety by attending these weeklong events starting with the opening ceremony on Sunday, May 11, 1997, and ending with a memorial ceremony on Saturday, May 17, honoring the memory of California officers killed in the line of duty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature does hereby proclaim May 11 through May 17, 1997, as Law Enforcement Appreciation Week in California, and encourages all Californians to join in this observance to commend our law enforcement officers for their professionalism and commitment to the citizens of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.
