

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 35

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 21

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 35—Relative to California Historical and Special Interest Automobile Recognition Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 16, 1997.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 35, Johannessen. California Historical and Special Interest Automobile Recognition Week.

This measure would proclaim the week of April 13 through April 20, 1997, as California Historical and Special Interest Automobile Recognition Week.

WHEREAS, The hobby of collecting, preserving, restoring, and maintaining motor vehicles of historic and special interest is encouraged by the Legislature as a constructive leisure pursuit, as stated in Section 5050 of the Vehicle Code; and

WHEREAS, There is a large number of California citizens who engage in this hobby which contributes to the enjoyment and preservation of California's automobile memorabilia; and

WHEREAS, There are many vehicle-related activities such as car shows, swap meets, interclub meets, concours, and tours, that feature historical and special interest vehicles, and these activities are often the focal point of healthful outdoor family recreation and are often used to promote nonprofit charitable causes; and

WHEREAS, There are many people in California who could gain great pleasure and knowledge from a greater involvement in vehicle memorabilia and vehicle-related activities; and

WHEREAS, The Association of California Car Clubs is conducting the Eleventh Annual Legislative Conference related to California Historic and Special Interest Vehicles on April 16, 1997; and

WHEREAS, The Association of California Car Clubs is celebrating its 25th Anniversary this year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the week of April 13 through April 20, 1997, as California Historical and Special Interest Automobile Recognition Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
