

Senate Bill No. 1360

CHAPTER 253

An act to amend Sections 7100 and 7100.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 7600.6 of the Probate Code, relating to human remains.

[Approved by Governor August 3, 1998. Filed with Secretary of State August 4, 1998.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1360, Alpert. Human remains: disposition.

Existing law lists the person or persons who may, in a specified order of succession, control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person if other directions have not been given by the decedent.

This bill would provide that if the person to whom right of control has vested under those provisions has been charged with first or second degree murder or voluntary manslaughter in connection with the decedent's death, the right of control over the disposition of the remains of the deceased person is relinquished and passed on to the next of kin in accordance with those provisions. The bill would also add to and revise the list of persons who may control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person pursuant to these provisions.

Existing law requires a funeral director or cemetery authority in control of the decedent's remains to notify the public administrator if certain persons with the right to control the disposition of the remains cannot be found after reasonable inquiry or cannot be contacted by reasonable means.

This bill would delete the reference to the cemetery authority with regard to this notice requirement.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7100. (a) The right to control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person, the location and conditions of interment, and arrangements for funeral goods and services to be provided, unless other directions have been given by the decedent pursuant to Section 7100.1, vests in, and the duty of disposition and the liability for the reasonable cost of disposition of the remains devolves upon, the following in the order named:

(1) An attorney-in-fact under a durable power of attorney for health care executed pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4600) of Part 4 of Division 4.5 of the Probate Code.

(2) The surviving spouse.

(3) The sole surviving adult child of the decedent, or if there is more than one adult child of the decedent, one-half or more of the surviving adult children. However, less than one-half of the surviving adult children shall be vested with the rights and duties of this section if they have used reasonable efforts to notify all other surviving adult children of their instructions and are not aware of any opposition to those instructions on the part of more than one-half of all surviving adult children. For purposes of this section, “adult child” means a competent natural or adopted child of the decedent who has attained 18 years of age.

(4) The surviving parent or parents of the decedent. If one of the surviving parents is absent, the remaining parent shall be vested with the rights and duties of this section after reasonable efforts have been unsuccessful in locating the absent surviving parent.

(5) The surviving competent adult person or persons respectively in the next degrees of kindred. If there is more than one surviving person of the same degree of kindred, the majority of those persons. Less than the majority of surviving persons of the same degree of kindred shall be vested with the rights and duties of this section if those persons have used reasonable efforts to notify all other surviving persons of the same degree of kindred of their instructions and are not aware of any opposition to those instructions on the part of one-half or more of all surviving persons of the same degree of kindred.

(6) The public administrator when the deceased has sufficient assets.

(b) (1) If any person to whom the right of control has vested pursuant to subdivision (a) has been charged with first or second degree murder or voluntary manslaughter in connection with the decedent’s death and those charges are known to the funeral director or cemetery authority, the right of control is relinquished and passed on to the next of kin in accordance with subdivision (a).

(2) If the charges against the person are dropped, or if the person is acquitted of the charges, the right of control is returned to the person.

(3) Notwithstanding this subdivision, no person who has been charged with first or second degree murder or voluntary manslaughter in connection with the decedent’s death to whom the right of control has not been returned pursuant to paragraph (2) shall have any right to control disposition pursuant to subdivision (a) which shall be applied, to the extent the funeral director or cemetery authority know about the charges, as if that person did not exist.

(c) A funeral director or cemetery authority shall have complete authority to control the disposition of the remains, and to proceed under this chapter to recover usual and customary charges for the disposition, when both of the following apply:

(1) Either of the following applies:

(A) The funeral director or cemetery authority has knowledge that none of the persons described in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) exists.

(B) None of the persons described in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) can be found after reasonable inquiry, or contacted by reasonable means.

(2) The public administrator fails to assume responsibility for disposition of the remains within seven days after having been given written notice of the facts. Written notice may be delivered by hand, U.S. mail, facsimile transmission, or telegraph.

(d) The liability for the reasonable cost of final disposition devolves jointly and severally upon all kin of the decedent in the same degree of kindred and upon the estate of the decedent. However, if a person accepts the gift of an entire body under subdivision (a) of Section 7155.5, that person, subject to the terms of the gift, shall be liable for the reasonable cost of final disposition of the decedent.

(e) This section shall be administered and construed to the end that the expressed instructions of the decedent or the person entitled to control the disposition shall be faithfully and promptly performed.

(f) A funeral director or cemetery authority shall not be liable to any person or persons for carrying out the instructions of the decedent or the person entitled to control the disposition.

(g) For purposes of paragraph (5) of subdivision (a), “competent adult” means an adult who has not been declared incompetent by a court of law or who has been declared competent by a court of law following a declaration of incompetence.

SEC. 2. Section 7100.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7100.1. (a) A decedent, prior to death, may direct, in writing, the disposition of his or her remains and specify funeral goods and services to be provided. Unless there is a statement to the contrary that is signed and dated by the decedent, the directions may not be altered, changed, or otherwise amended in any material way, except as may be required by law, and shall be faithfully carried out upon his or her death, provided both of the following requirements are met: (1) the directions set forth clearly and completely the final wishes of the decedent in sufficient detail so as to preclude any material ambiguity with regard to the instructions; and, (2) arrangements for payment through trusts, insurance, commitments by others, or any other effective and binding means, have been made, so as to preclude the payment of any funds by the survivor or survivors of the deceased that might otherwise retain the right to control the disposition.

(b) In the event arrangements for only one of either the cost of interment or the cost of the funeral goods and services are made pursuant to this section, the remaining wishes of the decedent shall be carried out only to the extent that the decedent has sufficient assets to do so, unless the person or persons that otherwise have the right to control the disposition and arrange for funeral goods and services agree to assume the cost. All other provisions of the directions shall be carried out.

(c) If the directions are contained in a will, they shall be immediately carried out, regardless of the validity of the will in other respects or of the fact that the will may not be offered for or admitted to probate until a later date.

SEC. 3. Section 7600.6 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

7600.6. A funeral director in control of the decedent's remains pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code shall notify the public administrator if none of the persons described in paragraphs (2) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code exist, can be found after reasonable inquiry, or can be contacted by reasonable means.
