

Senate Bill No. 2007

CHAPTER 161

An act to amend Section 19401 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horse racing.

[Approved by Governor July 17, 1998. Filed with Secretary of State July 17, 1998.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 2007, Kelley. Horse racing.

Existing law provides that the intent of the Horse Racing Law is to allow parimutuel wagering on horse races, while also, among other things, generating public revenues.

This bill would instead provide that the intent of the Horse Racing Law is to allow parimutuel wagering, while also, among other things, supporting the network of California fairs. The bill would also make technical, nonsubstantive changes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19401 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19401. The intent of this chapter is to allow parimutuel wagering on horse races, while:

- (a) Assuring protection of the public;
- (b) Encouraging agriculture and the breeding of horses in this state; and
- (c) Supporting the network of California fairs.
- (d) Providing for maximum expansion of horse racing opportunities in the public interest.
- (e) Providing uniformity of regulation for each type of horse racing.
