

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 82

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 154

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 82—Relative to the California State University.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 2000.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 82, Chesbro. California State University.

This measure would request the Trustees of the California State University to conduct an initial needs analysis with respect to the possible establishment of joint and collaborative programs in Crescent City utilizing the existing facilities of the College of the Redwoods, and the purpose of which would be to continue to offer education programs at the upper division and graduate levels.

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the Legislature that public programs of postsecondary education be made available to qualified persons throughout this state, including areas of substantial existing or projected population that are isolated from any campus of the California State University; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature requests the Trustees of the California State University to conduct an educational needs demand assessment in Crescent City to be served by California State University, Humboldt. The assessment shall include, but not be limited to, joint and collaborative programs that utilize the existing facilities of the College of the Redwoods and other approaches the purpose of which would be to continue to offer educational programs at the upper division and graduate levels; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests the trustees to review the results of the assessment and, if they deem appropriate, work with California State University, Humboldt, to expand, enhance, or create new upper division and graduate level opportunities in the communities in its service area, including facilities of the College of the Redwoods, extension programs, and other approaches. The California State University is requested to report the results of this process to the Legislature during the budget deliberations for the 2001–02 fiscal year.
