Great Loving God of Us All, We pray for the elected representatives of this Senate and their support staffs this day. Give us all courage when under fire and the ability to resist those whose agendas are not in the best interests of this state, its people, its ecology, or its governance. Help us to always hold before us the highest ideals of this republic, and to respond from our hearts and consciences to the issues before us. Help us to go beyond ideology and unexamined assumptions to the truths that will set all Californians free, so that this Chamber may be a light where there is darkness, and a place of refuge for those who need its protection.

We pray for the homeless in our streets, for those without employment, for the sick and the lonely, all those who are in need of Your Great Grace, and especially for those in this Chamber whose task is to govern fairly and wisely the State of California.—AMEN.
