PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rabbi Mona Alfi:

In his later years, the great Spanish cellist, Pablo Casals wrote: “As long as you are able to admire and to love, you are young. And there is so much to admire and to love . . . Look at the sea, the sky, trees, flowers! A single tree—what a miracle it is! What a fantastic, wonderful creation this world is, with such diversity. That is the law of nature, diversity.”

The law of nature is diversity. And not unlike the laws that come from human origin, it can be used to divide one person from another, or it can be used to strengthen a community that chooses to draw from its vast richness of differences. In and of itself diversity is not good or bad, it is what we do with it that gives it power and meaning.

May the Holy One reveal the blessings of diversity in the many shapes and forms that it has become manifest in our community and in our world. May we always see our differences as a source of strength to draw upon to inspire us and to make us better. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.
