The men and women of this house are on a difficult and lonely road.

These are extraordinary times and hard decisions have to be made: Decisions that are a heavy burden to mind, conscience and spirit. These are times when often the only unbiased advice, the only solace and comfort comes from family.

As you work to lead California, I pray that you find the strength you need from your families. I pray that having them standing by your side provides you with comfort. I pray that the support they give you helps you to make wise decisions. And I pray that knowing they are there with you enables you to lead California with compassion and foresight.

God bless you all.
