A friend of mine, by the name of Dewitt Jones, had been a photographer for the National Geographic for 20 years. Whenever the Geographic would send him out on an assignment, they would commission him with these words:

“Go celebrate what’s right with the world.”

Let us pray:

Eternal God, It is easy for us to focus upon the struggles with our economy, the high unemployment rate, and the crime that is taking place within our neighborhoods. But let us not lose vision for what is right in our world. We pray for our California Senate today and for this great state of California. We pray that the decisions that are made in these chambers will help us celebrate what is right in California and for our world.—AMEN.
