PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Creator of all humanity,

You have blessed us by creating us in Your image, each of us containing great potential and possibilities. Goethe spoke of each individual's capacity for greatness when he wrote: "If you treat me as if I were what I ought to be and could be, I will become what I ought to be and could be."

If we look into our own lives we can find that because of at least one or two people who had faith not so much in who we are, but in who we could become, we found the strength and ability within us to rise to greater heights.

Similarly, each of us has the capacity to help others reach their higher potential if we simply treat them in a way that reflects what they can and ought to be.

May we be so blessed to live in a world where we both see and nurture the potential for greatness that dwells in those around us, and may we have the resolve to help them fulfill those expectations. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Senator Knight moved that the following letter be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

April 21, 2014

Honorable Gregory Schmidt

Secretary of the Senate

Dear Mr. Schmidt:

I would like to clarify my vote in support of AB 777 (Murasutchi). I believe the bill would exempt taxes on space flight vehicles, and under this belief, I cast an “aye” vote for the bill. Per added Revenue and Taxation Code Section 242, qualified property as it is described for space launch vehicles should be construed to encompass vehicles that are air-launched, vertically-launched or launched from a runway and each stage of a multi-stage launch vehicle that are necessary components to achieve spaceflight, regardless of whether these stages remain in the atmosphere.

Launch vehicles that are solely used for space flight should be included in the definition of qualified property for the exemption set forth by the intent in Assembly Bill 777.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Steve Knight, Senator

21st Senate District
