Good afternoon. I have a little bell here that came from Haiti. Can you hear it? On it are written the words: "No one listens to the cry of the poor or the sound of a wooden bell."

Loving God, to many persons who are poor, it does seem that nobody cares. YOU know that we in this chamber care deeply, as do many millions more throughout our world. Grant us the courage to persevere in our efforts to alleviate poverty even when it seems like an impossible task. Inspire many others to contribute their time, talent, and treasure, so that all will have a place at the table of plenty, which You have so graciously set before us. We ask this in Your name.—AMEN.
